

Marvin attended Colton High School and graduated from Washington State University with a BA in Industrial Arts in 1962 and graduated with a Masters Degree in Education in 1967 from the University.

Marvin was a Junior High School teacher in the Franklin Pierce School District in Tacoma and a Senior High School teacher at Bellevue High School in Bellevue. Marvin was a Multi Lines Claims representative for 35 years with the Farmers Insurance Group of companies and has been a General Contractor for his owned company RESSCO LLC 2001 to the present. Marvin is also a joint owner of The Churchyard Inn Bed and Breakfast.

Marvin has served on boards at the Asotin County Library, the Asotin County Planning Commission, the Holy Family Parish and School Board, the St. Boniface Parish and School Board, the Holy Family School Foundation, the Elks Board, the UCDA Development, the Clarkston City Council and has been a long time member of the Board at the Center and is the Center's Secretary.

Marvin has also been involved as a construction consultant with the Artisian's Barn in Uniontown for local area artists and also serves as a construction consultant for the Center.