

LOOSE THREADS

September 2018, Volume 86, Issue 9 napavalleyquilters.org

Hello my quilting friends. Hope you all are enjoying the end of summer. Seems the seasons go by much too quickly these days.

I would like to thank the many people that stepped in to help during the last couple of months. Hopefully the medical challenges are over, and we can return to enjoying a normal lifestyle.

Don't forget our glamping/quilt trip. The dates are 10/15 thru 10/18 at the Petaluma KOA. I hope to see many of you there.

Cyndy Clark, President

Programs -

Kelli VanCamp gave the report, as Vice President of Programs Michelle Moore was not at the meeting.

September: The Saturday lecture will be "The Artist Within" by Geri Patterson-Kutras. Then on Sunday Geri will hold a workshop titled: "Landscape" The cost for twenty lucky students will be $30.00.

October: We will have Dixie McBride as speaker and workshop teacher. On Saturday October 20th at the general meeting, Dixie will lecture on "Quilt Judges and Jurors, Who Are They?" On Sunday October 21st she will teach an applique class titled "Rosevine Cottage". The cost for the class is $35.00.

November: Youngmin Lee - will speak on Korean Patchwork "Bojagi. In addition there will be a workshop on November 11 titled Bojagi Textile Art Seam Technique. If you plan to enroll in the workshop start collecting organza, cottons and lawn to use in the class.

December: It's time again for our Holiday Dinner! Details to come.

More information and links to the speakers' websites go to the Napa Valley Quilter's Website.

2018 Opportunity Quilt - Jan Schiefferly happily reported that our Opportunity Quilt had won both Best of Show and First Place at the Napa Town and Country Fair. She also announced that Linda Feutz was awarded Homemaker of the Year at the fair!

Membership -There were 77 members present at the meeting and 3 guests. Rose Luce asked that members let her know of any changes to their personal information so that the roster can be updated.

Quilts to Share –Sue Lipschultz reported that 1 quilt needed to be quilted and that juvenile fabric was available for quilt tops. A Q2S workday was planned for Sunday August 12 at the clubhouse on Orchard Avenue, lunch would be provided, bring drinks and snacks to share.

Drawings -There were 4 great prizes and 4 lucky winners!

Block of the Month – Elizabeth Helmer announced that Sarah Galzinski won the blocks.

Historian -Carol Holmes reminded members that old pictures were on the table ready for pick-up.

Hospitality –Leslie announced that she was leaving early and reminded everyone to pick up their left over goodies.

Art in the Library–Please give your quilts to Cheryl Bundy.

Library- Kathy Stegman apologized for having forgotten to bring the Library books and that new books had been donated at the meeting. She is also looking for suggestions for light, collapsible, and easy-to-store book displays.

Newsletter –Cheryl Bundy reminded everyone that all Newsletter content must be in by the 20th of the month. She is also looking for a replacement to take over the Newsletter as of January 2019.

Sunshine – members were told of the recent passing of long-time guild member and friend Marsha Linstad.

Communication–Patti Glenn had no report.

In Addition:

Meetings will be held at the Las Flores Community Center beginning in October of this year. In addition, VERY IMPORTANT, in October the meeting will be on the 3rd Saturday of the month not the second Saturday!

Bev Brown shared that a woman had contacted her regarding organizing a tour to Japan to attend the Tokyo Quilt Show in January 2019. As a guild, we will receive $100 for every member who signs up for the tour. Brochures were available.

The Genealogy Library is looking for a quilt to raffle off as a fundraiser.

Broadway Quilts is looking for a sales assistant.

Please let President Cyndy Clark know if you are interested in a Clamping Quilt retreat from October 10-18.

The meeting was adjourned for Show and Tell at 10:30AM.

Thank you everyone for helping out at the Fair !!!

We made some $$$ and it benefits the guild.

Saturday 8 September 2018 Lecture: "The Artist Within"

Sunday 9 September 2018 Workshop: "Landscape" $30

Gerri Patterson-Kutras

We've all seen those landscapes that take our breath away with their color, rolling hills or drifting sand dunes. Together we'll take a look at how artists in a variety of mediums achieve translating their visions into works of art. I'll demonstrate methods of creating landscapes by adding movement, segments of interest and surprise bits of color for added depth and detail. The focus of this class is developing each student's personal style of telling a landscape story. Contact Michelle Moore for sign-ups.

Korean Textiles (Patchwork): Bojagi

Bojagi

Patchworked bojagi (jogakbo) were made exclusively by and for the common people using various colors of small remnants. Jogakbo are comparable to modern abstract paintings. The talent and aesthetic sense that created a work of art from discarded scraps of cloths were sufficient to make jogakbo excellent works of art.

While making jogakbo, women wished for the recipients' good luck and happiness. This is why bojagi were also called bok meaning both a wrapping cloth and good luck in Korean. Something made with much care was believed to bring good luck and happiness. Thus, it seems that making a great effort to patch together the scraps of cloth was regarded as a medium for asking for good luck. In addition, connecting small pieces of cloths was associated with long life. Contact Michelle Moore for workshop sign-ups NupaWorkshop@shcglobal.net
