Librarian Carol Joachim will be paring down the library box to just books on glass so expect to see some "specialty" books from our library that will be added to this month's auction.

Our November meeting are traditionally a Silent AUCTION, alternating yearly between Glass and Books. This year it's BOOKS!

Come ready to bid on your books of choice. The funds raised will enhance our own library.

Viewing and Bidding begins at 7pm before meeting begins and will continue for a bit after meeting is adjourned and during refreshments. A bell will ring signaling the end of bidding.

Bidding begins at $1 and increases by even dollar amounts.

Last person on the sheet when ending bell rings wins the book.

Program: Chilean Copper Art

by Astrid Mussi

Astrid Mussi was made in Chile and born in the USA. Her Mother was born and raised in Chile, came to Mississippi College in Hattisburg where she met her father. These pieces are from her Mom's collection. The largest platter has the 1834 Coat of Arms. The second largest platter has the National Flower, Bell Flower and was a gift from Astrid's Grandmother to her Mother. The sail boat plaque is an example of unpolished Copper with a nice dark patina. The small brass piece to the left in front of largest platter was thought to be copper until it was polished. Far right is the Chilean flag. Astrid's family would fly the flag on September 18th signifying Chilean National Independence. Most neighbors thought it was a Texas flag. But the Chilean flag predates the Texas flag.

The trivet with beautiful blue Lapis Lazuli is pictured above, left. There were also earrings with Lapis Lazuli on the table. The charming terracotta monk (center photo) has copper keys in his hand. The plate (right photo) with handle is an example of enameled copper.

Facts about Chile and Copper: Chile is the world's largest producer of Copper, 5.8 metric tons in one year. Chile's seasons are the opposite of North America. Rose Gold gets its color from adding copper to gold. Copper is an electrical conductor. The Statue of Liberty is made of copper. There is copper in the liver, muscle, and bones of humans.
