April 23, 2017
Second Sunday of Easter
Or Divine Mercy Sunday
John 20:19-31

“Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

After his Resurrection Jesus appeared to his disciples hiding in a room “behind locked doors.” To calm their fears he said, “Peace be with you.” Then, standing in front of them, with holes in his hands and a spear gash in his side, Jesus said, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” He sent them into the world to do and say the same things that resulted in his crucifixion. That had to concern the disciples. But then he said, “Receive the Holy Spirit” and empowered them to reconcile sinners with the Loving God who created them. When others disciples feared going near Jerusalem, Thomas said, “Let us also go die with him.” When Jesus appears in the room a second time it is Thomas who proclaims, “My Lord and my God.” Jesus knew those who did not know him and see his wounds after his Resurrection would believe in him on the strength of the faith of others. Those who come after us will believe in Jesus on the strength of our faith. Do we believe Jesus as “Our Lord and our God”? Do we proclaim that by what we do and say?

Do you know a future priest?

World Day of Prayer for Vocations – Called by Name Sunday May 7th, the Fourth Sunday of Easter is known as Good Shepherd Sunday. It has also been designated a World Day of Prayer for Vocations. This year marks its 54th year. As we celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, each parish in the Diocese of Owensboro has been invited to participate in CALLED BY NAME, a program of vocations awareness that offers an opportunity for us to pray for priestly vocations; to recognize gifts and potential for leadership and service in members of our parish; and finally, to call forth and encourage these members to share their gifts in priesthood. Perhaps you know a man (high school or older) who would, in your opinion, have the qualities to become a priest. We will follow up with them and offer resources for discernment and personally invite them to participate in our discernment programs such as, Come and See weekends, discernment retreats, and Made for More Camp. Please recommend this person by submitting their name online at <https://owensborodiocese.org/called-by-name/> or by contacting the vocations office: 270-683-1545 or jason.mcclure@pastoral.org

Sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable person is a crime according to both state and Church law, and there is help and healing possible. To report to civil authorities, call local law enforcement at (270) 928-2122 or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331). A full explanation of the Diocese's response to sexual abuse concerns can be found in the revised sexual abuse policy, effective July 1, 2014, which can be found (e.g. in the back of church, on the parish bulletin board, in the book rack, in the parish office and also on the Diocesan web site (www.rcdok.org/safe)).
