Family Bible Hour Classes, Spring 2022

Starting Sunday, January 16 at 9:30 a.m.

“The Acts of the Holy Spirit” with Craig Apel

We will be continuing our study of the New Testament book of Acts, under the title “The Acts of the Holy Spirit.” We will pick up at Acts 13, focusing upon the birth and growth of the Church of this dispensation, the Body of Christ.

“Praying Through 22” with Pastor Gary Spykerman

This class will not only be a teaching class on prayer, but it will also be a place for us to experience praying together. We will be looking at prayer from a personal level (Ways to develop our own prayer closet) and ways to expand our prayer gatherings as a community of believers. What time is it? It is time to pray! Come join us in the Fireside area where we will meet on January 16th for the first week of Praying Through 22. "Lord, teach us how to pray." (Luke 11:1)

World Religions Apologetics with Pastor David Franklin

Did you know that most Mormons believe that we are the spirit children of both God the Father and God the Mother? Come join us as we dive into pseudo-Christian religions, Catholicism, Jehovah's Witness, Mormonism, and Islam. Our goal is to form a biblical basis for the truth that we hold while also understanding how these faiths have strayed from a right interpretation of Scripture. We will learn how to identify the lies within these faiths and point others back to biblical truth.

“The Story of Christ’s Church” with Pastor Joe Johnson & Kurt Postma

The Body of Christ began 2000 years ago, but what has happened between then and now? How did the church get to where it is? Why are there so many different denominations and sects of the church? In this class, we’ll dive into the major developments and people in the history of the church. By seeing where we’ve been, we can see how God is moving now.

“Shadows of the Messiah” with John Tooke and Barry Dekker

This class continues with an overview of Ezra and Nehemiah. Explore with us the significance of rebuilding the Jewish Temple and the Wall, and how it all points forward to the Messiah’s future Kingdom.

MEET 2 OF OUR 4 VISITING MISSIONARIES

Frosty & Cathy Hansen

On March 7, 2017, Frosty and Cathy Hansen arrived once again in Santa Cruz, Bolivia, where they previously served with Grace Ministries International from 1993-2004. They were welcomed warmly by the leadership of the Misión Evangélica Bethesda (MEB), the Bolivian churches with which GMI has partnered for decades and who had requested help in reestablishing a program of theological education. In January 2022, the Hansens returned back to the states to officially retire from the mission field. Join us as we hear about their transitions and celebrate their ministry!

Givemore & Sylvia Nyakimbiri

The calling to missions became strong when the Nyakimbiris were in Mozambique and since then the desire to serve God where Christ Jesus is not preached fully was cemented in their hearts. Whether they were in Chinhoyi or anywhere God wanted them, equipping others for the ministry in teaching, leadership training, and counseling remained paramount. Givemore serves wherever he is needed and Sylvia connects with ladies by teaching sewing, equipping ladies with ways to run their homes with the little they have, as well as how they can proactively help in their homes with very small businesses. She and the other ladies were able to help the church with finances in Chinhoyi, Malawi.

PLEASE COMPLETE AND PUT IN THE OFFERING PLATE!
