QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

A Mass remembering those who have passed away from our Parish unit in the past year will be celebrated at St. Augustine's on Tuesday, November 23rd at 7:00pm.

The Book of The Names of the Dead will be on display in each of our churches throughout the month of November. Due to covid, if you wish to have the name of your loved one entered into the book you can do so by either calling the office at 857-4223 or send us an email at parish.office@qasmoncton.com. We will enter the name into the book. The names previously written in the book remain from year to year and continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. No need to write their names in again. Preference for attendance at this Mass will be given to families of deceased loved ones. Thank you for your understanding.

On October 24th through the SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM
 The following children were welcomed into our Christian Family at St. Augustine's Church

Lucía Elin Aldrete Fennell daughter of Adrian Mauricio and Heather
Callie Avery Flores daughter of Liverato Jr. and Charo
Grayson Beau Oliver Legacy son of Jason and Kathy Lee

God bless these little children. May the example of their parents, Godparents and all of us lead them to a greater love of God.

*We stand before you, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.
 With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;
 teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.
 We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.
 Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
 nor partiality influence our actions.
 Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
 All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son,
 forever and ever. Amen.*

People and Planet First

Let's listen to the voices of our brothers and sisters fighting for their right to a healthy environment

World leaders have gathered for the 26th UN Climate Change Conference of the Parties (COP26). Although these powerful decision-makers are debating the future of the planet, they are probably too far removed from the realities of its most vulnerable people. It is up to us to hear and amplify the voices of those who are defending their rights and the environment against economic ravage.

Medarda Hernandez, whose community in Honduras has been repeatedly harmed by large industrial projects, including supposedly "green" projects, says, "if other extractivist projects start in our community, we are not going to let them pass. I ask the international community to come to our aid, because we are really suffering from this situation."

So that people like Medarda do not go unheard, let's make Canadian companies operating abroad responsible for protecting human and environmental rights. Join Development and Peace's People and Planet First campaign to make this happen. Visit <https://devp.org/en> to learn more.

Exploring our Faith

"The Lord is our God, the Lord alone.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart." (Deut 6:4-6)

Did you know that these words and their various translations, are deemed so important that they are an invocation to prayer for three major religions that claim Abraham as their father of faith: Judaism, Christianity and Islam.

In Judaism, this passage is not only spoken as an invocation, but is written on the parchment inside the tefillin/phylacteries (small leather prayer boxes) worn by some devout Jews above the forehead and on the upper arm during solemn prayer. It is a reminder that God alone is the source of life and our well-being, and that all prayer and action should begin from this perspective.

Jesus, also, is well aware of the importance of this Scripture passage and cites it as "the first commandment" in today's gospel. As Catholics, we begin prayers with the sign of the cross over our forehead, heart and shoulders while praying, "In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit," invoking that all we are about to say and do be done with God as its source.

In Islam, each of the five daily calls to prayer begin with an acknowledgement that God alone is deemed "Great," and God alone is the source of life, truth and wisdom.

What I find so powerful in this Scripture prayer, is that we are not asked to obey God with our whole heart, soul and might, but to love God with our whole heart, soul and might. God is not demanding our absolute obedience, but is offering to be in control of our life. Why? Because God wants us to live joyful and fulfilling lives. "Hear therefore, O Israel and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you...in a land flowing with milk and honey."

After all the pervasive anxiety we have been experiencing over the last several months, today's Scripture passages offer comfort. Much as we strive to know and control our future, these words tell us that we never had, nor never will control the future...and that's OK!...because God has the "steering wheel" well in hand. With love of God fueling our hearts, mind and strength, we are simply called to do what we can do, today.

Giving over the control and fears for our future into God's loving and wise hands is the beginning of finding that peace we so desperately seek. Fear and anxiety are exhausting and debilitating, and often leads us to become more critical and judgemental of others. Acknowledging and accepting that God is in control of the future gives us the energy and freedom to not only live more at peace, but frees up our energy to better "love our neighbour," as well. Trusting that God is at work within every crisis allows our tiny mustard-sized seeds of hope to be watered and nurtured by a God who ultimately desires the joy and well-being of us and our neighbours.

*"I love you, O Lord, my strength.
The Lord lives! Blessed be my rock, and exalted be the God of my salvation." (Ps 18:1,46)*
