Who is My Neighbour: Exploring Fratelli Tutti: Who is my neighbour and how can the parable of the Good Samaritan help us to examine our role in our communities? How does St. Francis of Assisi guide us in attending to the stranger and the other? How can we transform the seemingly inevitable consequences of discord and conflict?

Join Dr. Andrew Wilson, either in person or virtually on Tuesday, April 20th from 7:00-9:00 p.m. as he explores these and others question opening up for us the encyclical letter Fratelli Tutti, released by Pope Francis in October 2020. A frequent presenter for the Office of Faith Development, Andrew is associate professor of religious studies at Mount Allison University, Sackville. In person participation will take place at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview, where all COVID-19 protocols will be respected. Register with Ellen by Monday, April 19th and indicate whether you will be joining us physically or virtually.

Join the Conversation: The Office of Youth Faith Development is seeking young people aged 12-24 to join a series of virtual conversations (via Zoom) originally initiated by the CCCB and the Canadian Catholic Youth Ministry Network. These sessions are scheduled to take place on an ongoing basis beginning in May and will be an opportunity for young people across Atlantic Canada to gather and talk about issues important to them in 2021 and how we as a faith community can respond to them. All young people in this age range are welcome to join the conversation. For more information contact Trevor.

Mondays at the Movies

Everyone is invited to join our film discussion series this Easter season designed to connect popular films to our faith. On April 19th, we will meet via Zoom at 10:00 am to discuss the film The Green Mile (1999), based on the novel by Stephen King. On May 3rd, we will meet via Zoom at 6:30 pm to discuss the film Signs (2002) starring Mel Gibson. For each session, participants will have watched the film ahead of time. Contact Karen for more information and to register at or ihmccatechism@rogers.com or 387-4198. Mondays at the Movies is a collaborative effort between St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Pastoral Unit and the Archdiocese of Moncton Office of Youth Faith Development.

Exploring our Faith

“Faith is to believe what you do not see;
The reward of faith is to see what you believe.” (St. Augustine)

Throughout our lives, we encounter experiences that knock our sense of balance off kilter and we discover that what we believed to be unchangeable is now somewhat unstable. When unexpected loss, trauma or darkness envelops us or those we love, we sometimes question our deepest beliefs in God and in ourselves. Although varied reasons exist, few of us have managed to totally avoid these times of soul-searching crises. Our present pandemic has been such a catalyst for some. Although some people have enjoyed discovering previously untapped sources of faith enrichment, the loss of “normal” has left a void in many people’s lives; leaving them unsure of how to find nourishment for their spiritual hunger. Many have told me that they feel drained; that the never-ending sense of “crisis” has depleted their inner reserves of hope and optimism, making it hard to feel God’s presence in their lives.

Thinking about the many different faith altering moments of our lives made today’s gospel story of Thomas relatable for me. He is often unfairly referred to as “Doubting Thomas,” but I prefer how some writings refer to him as “Thomas, the Twin,” for he represents all of us at those points in our faith lives when we are torn between belief and unbelief, between old beliefs and new truths; that dual nature of an evolving faith that moves between the peace we find in our assurance that God is near and the confusion of struggling with doubts and uncertainty.

Teachers of our faith have often referred to these internal struggles of faith as “dark nights of the soul,” and I find comfort knowing that many great saints experienced these difficult times on their faith journey. Like Thomas, we find ourselves begging for some sort of proof or sign that our faith in God’s love is legitimate and true. We may not be given the opportunity offered Thomas to physically touch the risen Christ, but sometimes allowing ourselves to be open to encountering the risen Christ can reveal God to us in new and totally unexpected ways. Recognizing these encounters help us to evolve, yet again, in our relationship of faith. As in any relationship of value, be it marriage, friendship or faith, a constant demand for proof of another’s love can prevent the trust needed to recognize the love that is being offered. Being open to receiving someone’s love and acceptance, often allows us to recognize the signs of its existence even when it may not resemble what we expected.

The disciples were experiencing their own “dark night of the soul,” and locked the doors in fear, ashamed of their betrayals and failures and afraid of an uncertain future. Yet Jesus found a way to get past their walls and, without judgement or reprisals, offered them the gift of his peace. Unlike Thomas, Jesus never asks for proof of their belief or strength of faith or level of worthiness, but offers his gift of hope and light unconditionally. They had to accept the gift, however, to recognize its true worth. God seeks us into relationship regardless of our failings, even when we are unable to seek out God.

The story of Thomas and the disciples during their dark days of doubt and fear, reminds me of one my favourite songs, “Anthem” by Leonard Cohen, in which he writes “There is a crack in everything. That’s how the light gets in.”
