During our final two weeks, we'll read selected chapters in the New Testament that show the fulfillment of some of the great Old Testament prophecies.*

"All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work."

II Timothy 3:16-17

2021 BIBLE-READING SCHEDULE

This year we are reading through the major and minor prophets (the Old Testament books of Isaiah through Malachi). These prophetic books are not only prophecies that pertained to the children of Israel in the days in which they were given, they are also brimming over with references and allusions to Jesus Christ and the kingdom He would establish through His disciples. The New Testament is replete with references to these writings, teaching us the value of these prophecies in understanding the nature of this spiritual kingdom.

Recognizing that this is "meaty" material, the readings have been kept brief (just one chapter a day, five days a week), so that we don't get overwhelmed.

Let's be diligent in our efforts to mine the Scriptures this year, as we "remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets" (2 Peter 3:2).
