Nominated Awards: Competitors in this division are nominated by club members and selected by the board of directors. Nomination forms are due at the same date, December 1 of the year being counted.

Breed Ambassador (Horse) - Any Purebred or Half-Arabian horse that acts as an ambassador through exposure. This can be through competing on an all breed circuit, discipline circuit, participating in clinics for judging schools or 4H, or by other means. This horse exemplifies the characteristics of Arabian and Half-Arabian horses in it's kindness, willingness, and trainability to handle new situations.

Breed Ambassador (Person) - Any club member who utilizes their free time and resources to share the Arabian and Half-Arabian horses outside the breed showing community. This can be through volunteering, organizing outreach events, clinics, or donating to outside organizations in AHACO's name.
