

You are cordially invited to an

Evening of Wellness

Susan Rohr BSN, RN, Dr. Zachary Kienol, D.C., and the dedicated staff of Brookfield Health & Wellness look forward to sharing with you in an evening of pampering and education. You will be immersed with sample treatments of our state of the art Energy Medicine, Chiropractic Care, Body & Foot Detoxification, Neurofeedback & Anti-Aging Technologies.

Individuals looking to take their health & wellbeing to the next level should attend this inspirational event. Individuals with unexplained fatigue, weight gain, brain fog or an overall desire to feel better; those with Lyme Disease, Cancer, Fibromyalgia, Chronic Fatigue, Autoimmune Disorders, digestive issues, and unresolved pain; individuals & families coping with autism, learning disabilities, ADHD, PTSD, Postpartum, depression, anxiety, dementia, concussions, or CTE from multiple head traumas will gain insight into new and exciting holistic therapies for healing.

We are dedicated to your wellbeing and passionate about providing integrative healing for the Mind, Body & Soul.
