

What is Ordinary after Pentecost?

There are two version of the giving of the Holy Spirit to the Church. In one, (Acts 2:1-12) a roar of wind is heard outside the room and tongues of fire appear on the heads of the apostles. After, they go outside and preach to people of many nations and languages. In another version, (Jn 20:22-23) the Risen Christ appears to the apostles and breathes on them saying, “Receive the Holy Spirit, whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven, whose you retain, they are retained.”

Both versions refer back to stories in Genesis: the Tower of Babel, which describes what happened with the Indo-European languages, is reversed by Luke’s version; the expulsion of Adam and Eve from Eden for knowing good from evil, is reversed by John’s version. Both versions refer to the gift of the Holy Spirit as language: the tongues of fire as language within each one of us with which we think, and the breath with which we live and talk.

A child is born, swaddled, nursed and loved. Then one day, after a year or two, an ordinary miracle occurs, the child utters their first word. After that comes non-stop talking. Except if the child is born hearing-impaired. That child does not swim in the ocean of language and so teaches us all the importance of hearing and listening in ordinary life and communication.

Today, the wind outside has exploded with the languages of the world. Any and all information is available to anyone at the touch of their fingertips. Long ago, when the secret technology of turning sheepskin into parchment was stolen by the Argonauts and brought to Pergamon, it was called “Golden” Fleece. Now, we see communications and Internet billionaires rich beyond the dreams of avarice.

My mother grew up before the inventions of gasoline, electricity and telephone. Her daily life was closer to the ordinary lives of Biblical times than to that of her own grandchildren. Today, we can be in Moncton and tomorrow in Australia, if we wish. We can eat breakfast and wear clothing from five different continents. Ordinary people enjoy conveniences undreamed of by the wealthiest of the time of Jesus.

When I was seven, I set out at twilight for Jenny’s candy store. I kept walking and walking, not finding Jenny’s. I started asking passersby, “Where is Jenny’s?” and they all pointed ‘that way’, which was behind me. I kept going forward though and saying, “No, I want the one that is this way!” Crying, I kept on going until someone phoned my mother and she sent my brother to collect me.

Our word “conversion” is based on the Latin for ‘turn around and go the other way’. Today, we need to know how to listen but we also need to know good from evil, in all the Internet noise all around us. Will global warming be irreversible because of our gasoline-fired technologies?

Young people in Scouts have fun adventures discovering new things and experiences they wouldn't have elsewhere. Along the way, they develop into capable, confident and well rounded individuals, better prepared for success in the world. Scouts is the start of something great.

Sid Hart, a 5 year old Beaver, says "We learned about the difference between red and white pines and then we played capture the flag with Cubs! Cool!"

To enroll youth in an exciting outdoor adventure with St. Michael's Scouting, visit www.Scouts.ca, or to find out more information about opportunities for children ages 5-18 years old, contact Darlene Tower at 388 9420 photobug2010@hotmail.com

Are you an outdoor person looking for opportunities to volunteer.... outdoors? Looking for opportunities to hike, camp, ski, snowshoe, canoe, and travel? Perhaps you can consider Scouts Canada. St. Michaels Scouting offers programming for young people ages 5 to 18 years old, and are recruiting Scouters. Visits www.scouts.ca or contact Darlene Tower

PALLIATIVE CARE AND END OF LIFE SESSIONS

- Saturday, October 19th, Pamela Mansfield MD, CCFP (PC), Palliative Care Division Head, Moncton Hospital, Horizon Health Network, and Assistant Professor, Dalhousie University will talk about journeying / accompanying those who live with chronic / terminal illness. Dr. Mansfield will clarify euthanasia and symptom management; speak of the end stages of debilitating illnesses and what that means for making the patient comfortable, which may be different than family expectations; and remind us that palliative care is not only for end of life, and needs to be accessed early. Session will be at St. Bernard's Church Hall from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon.
- B.L. Eileen Dennis, LL.B. a lawyer specializing in family law, wills and trusts, will speak about the legal aspects of end of life issues reminding us of what we need to put in place to ensure legally that our decisions are respected. This session takes place Thursday, October 24th from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Location to be determined. Pre-registration for either or both sessions is necessary and may be done by contacting Ellen.
