GI = Game injury. This means that the player is injured only for the rest of the current game. If he is injured in the first game of a double-header, he is NOT eligible to play in game 2 either. But he IS eligible to play the next day and beyond. The number on the injury chart is how many games beyond the game he was injured in that he must sit out. (Ex. Player injured is rated Inj-1. You roll a 25 and check the injury chart. The number appearing on 25 under the Inj-1 column is 1. This means that the injured player sits out the rest of the game he is injured in plus one more game.)
