

Sandy Davison
Co-Founder Soccer Development Strategies

Sandy Davison brings 20 years of combined experiences from the youth and college game in coaching, managing and directing.

Beginning with her success's with the Davis Sidekicks where the program and her teams earned accolades at the state and regional levels. Sandy also made significant contributions as a head coach and Director of Player Development with the Pleasanton RAGE in Northern California. In South Texas she served as a head coach with the Challenge Soccer Club and continued to produce teams that earned state, regional and national success while producing players that were selected into ODP, youth national teams and recruited into the college game. At both Tophat in Atlanta and the Sereno Soccer Club in Arizona her players and teams continued to have state, regional and national success.

Davison's experience in ODP as a state age group coach and regional age group coach were noted success's and resulted in player being selected into youth national teams with the U14 age groups and older. She also served as an assistant coach with the U.S. U17 Women in 2003. Sandy holds an "A" license from U.S. Soccer.

As a collegiate coach Sandy worked in assistant volunteer capacities at the University of Cincinnati and the University of Louisville. She has also worked as the fulltime assistant women's coach at the University of North Carolina – Greensboro and, currently, the assistant women's soccer coach at Washington State University in the Pac 12.