

Inspirational Spirit of the Phoenix, Inc.

For Immediate Release: May 1, 2018

Albany, New York (Social Media & Newswire): Tynia Canada, transformational speaker, professional singer and Founder of Inspirational Spirit of the Phoenix, Inc. will be the first African American Keynote speaker at the 13th Annual Battered Women's Custody Conference. The conference will take place May 4-6 at The Red Lion Hotel in Albany, NY.

Canada has been featured in Essence Magazine, Sister 2 Sister Magazine, the Washington Post, the Baltimore Sun, and other publications. She is also a recipient of the Phenomenal Mother Award from Wetati, an organization dedicated to challenging and inspiring women to DARE to achieve their 'impossible.' Her stature and caliber earned her the Trailblazers award from Wetati.

As for her educational accomplishments, Canada earned her dual undergraduate degree in music education and communications from Adelphi University and a master's degree in clinical and counseling psychology from Capella University.

Canada is a mother of two children. She was involved in an arduous custody battle which resulted in her victory. Canada, a woman of passion, vision and purpose. She is also a sought after transformational speaker and spiritual guide leading workshops and classes throughout the United States, to facilitate healing, growth and spiritual development.

For singing and speaking engagement request, you may contact Crystal Artist at 703-400-6646, or email at info@inspirationaphoenix.com.