WBC HAPPENINGS

THANK YOU

Dear Welcome Family,

Thank you much for the wonderful surprise of your kind words and gift of appreciation last Sunday morning during worship. Throughout our months with you, I have enjoyed the blessings of shared worship and prayer, learning, fellowship and serving with you directly as interim Song Leader. Also giving and serving with you through Saturday Saints and other ministry opportunities. You are to be commended for your spirit of love and kindness. We pray God's continued guidance and blessings upon your reliance upon Him as you show and share His love. I am especially appreciative of Beverly, Pastor Wayne, Pat, choir members and Deacons for their support and encouragement.

Grace and peace to you,
Tom Warnock

The Touch of the Master's Hand

'Twas battered and scarred, and the old auctioneer
Thought it scarcely worth his while to waste much time on the old violin,
But he still held it up with a smile:
"What am I bidden, good folks," he cried,
"Who'll start the bidding for me?"
"A dollar, a dollar"; then, "Two!" "Only two?"
Two dollars, and who'll make it three?
Three dollars, once; three dollars, twice;
going for three ..." but no.
From the room far back, a gray-haired man
Came forward and picked up the bow;
Then, wiping the dust from the old violin,
And tightening the loose strings,
He played a melody pure and sweet
As a caroling angel sings.

The music ceased, and the auctioneer,
With a voice that was quiet and low,
Said; "What am I bidden for the old violin?"
And he held it up with the bow.
"A thousand! And who'll make it two?"
Two thousand! And who'll make it three?
Three thousand, once, three thousand, twice,
And going, and gone," said he.
The people cheered, but some of them cried,
"We do not quite understand
What changed it's worth." Swift came the reply:
"The touch of the master's hand."

And many a man with life out of tune,
And battered and scarred with sun,
Is auctioned cheap to the thoughtless crowd,
Much like this old violin.
A "mess of pottage," a glass of wine;
A game; and he travels on.
He is "going" once, "going" twice,
He's "going" and almost "gone."
But the Master comes, and the foolish crowd
Never can quite understand
The worth of a soul and the change that's wrought
By the touch of the Master's hand.
