

Karyn Stenzler is a certified Community Work Incentive Coordinator and has been certified through the Social Security Administration since 2009. She joined Full Circle Employment Solutions in September 2011 and has worked with individuals with disabilities for over 20 years, with the last 13 years in the Washington, DC area. Ms. Stenzler enjoys educating beneficiaries, families and support team members about Social Security work incentives and encourages financial independence. She trains on multiple social security topics; including initial eligibility and overpayments. In her spare time, Ms. Stenzler enjoys gardening and spending time with her family. She can be contacted at karyn.stenzler@fullcircledc.com.

