PAME Extends International Solidarity to the Workers of Puerto Rico

PAME that represents the class trade union movement of Greece expresses its solidarity to the workers and the people of Puerto Rico.

As in Greece, the people of Puerto Rico face a barbaric attack in their rights under the pretext of public debt. But the debts were not created by the people. They were created by the Monopoly Groups, the Governments and the political forces who serve them. When big corporations benefited with huge tax exemptions, cheap labour, anti-workers' measures, the workers and the poor people were demanded to pay for a debt and a crisis they did not create. The workers are demanded to lose their healthcare, their wages, their children's' education, their social rights. For this situation great are the responsibilities of trade unions that support class collaboration and the position of "common sacrifices to overcome the debts".

The debt should be paid by those who created it. The big corporations, the big monopoly groups. Not by the people.

For the working class only path is that of class struggle. Of organization of the struggle against the big monopoly groups, against the policies that benefit the capitalists and lead the people to poverty and misery. Struggle for the satisfaction of people's contemporary needs. Cancellation of the debt, with those who produce the wealth to become its rightful owners.
