A Note from Rick: Markets showed strength in almost all categories this week at TLA. Numbers were up considerably in part due to the wet weather, but it was also our Special Feeder Sale on Tuesday and Special Springer Sale on Thursday. We had a big run of Holstein replacement heifers and the market was a little stronger and so was the Springer market on Thursday. Two main reasons for this in my opinion are the time of year and also the fact that the Dairy Market has stabilized. I think buyers and sellers are getting more comfortable with the current market, even though many of us don't like it. We are seeing a much steadier and active market due to more participation. This sure makes my job easier and gives us all a better feeling about the market we are in. We had several nice groups of Holstein Butcher Steers that sold very well on Tuesday also. Butcher cows were steady and calves were slightly weaker. Enjoy the sunshine and get your ponies ready! Be ready to spend all day Memorial Day at TLA because we have a stallion presentation and 275 ponies to sell. Looking forward to a great day at TLA!
