Working with Continental Europe

How is Continental Europe different from US and UK? What do collaboration partners from Continental Europe think about about their Indian partners?

Agenda:

- Short intro to Sietar – Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research
- Working with Continental Europe by Isabelle Demangeat

Yes, continental Europe is different from UK and from the USA – we all know that! But what are the main pit falls which should be avoided in doing business and communicating with partners, colleagues and bosses from Germany, France, Italy or the Nordics? What are their views on their Indian partners?

This workshop gives you an overview of the different cultural behaviours and mind-sets you can expect while working with continental Europe. A contribution to your success across borders.

About Isabelle: Isabelle is a senior coach and consultant by passion, working and living between different cultures. She feels privileged to support global executives and teams in their professional and personal development in an international environment.
