

No Surprises Act/Good Faith Estimate

_____ Patient has insurance and plans to file for reimbursement.

_____ Patient offered written Good Faith Estimate (GFE) and declined after verbal discussion of current fees. Patient is aware that both current and future fees are posted on my website and that the fee for any visit is based on the amount of time of the scheduled appointment. Patient is also aware that he/she may request a written GFE at any time. Estimated fee for next visit is _____. This was discussed with patient.

_____ Patient offered written GFE and accepted this in addition to verbal discussion of current fees and upcoming fee increase if this occurs.
