THOMAS R. WILLIAMS

As an international speaker and published author Thomas R. Williams is a "Professional Reminder." Known for his engaging presentations, Thomas' passion is to remind companies, organizations and individuals that you don't have to look for "GREATNESS," because it's already inside of you.

"Everyone has everything they need, to get everything they want." As a small town kid with BIG time dreams he wants everyone to know that just as fears are created in the mind, so are dreams.

He challenges every audience to DREAM, DARE, DO. Thomas R. Williams represents possibilities. That anyone, anytime, anywhere can become anything they want to be.

Thomas just wants to remind people that the time is NOW and the place is HERE. Thomas graduated from the University of Southern California with a degree in Sociology. During his 5 years at USC, Thomas won 2 national championships and 4 Rose Bowls as a linebacker for the Trojans. Then as Thomas went onto play 5 years in the NFL he was not just focused on winning and competing, but rather mastering goal setting, teamwork, perseverance and leadership. Thomas R. Williams is a full-time student at LIFE University where he never plans to graduate. Life is about knowledge and wisdom. Education is everything! Thomas has had great role models from his coaches and teammates in the NFL all the way back to teachers back in elementary school. He wants to do for YOU what these people did for him... Change your life. As a Middle linebacker Thomas used to be concerned with being a "game changer." Now Williams is concerned with being a LIFE changer. Thomas prides himself not on telling people how to live their lives but sharing with you how he chooses to live his. Everything that he talks about is the same way he lives day in and day out. He says, "opportunity doesn't have a favorite day of the week, so go ahead and embrace yours today."
