Frank Staub, Dies at Cottage

Frank W. (Buck) Staub, 58, former salesman here who also served as city constable, died unexpectedly at his home seven miles southwest of Rhinelander Sunday evening, following a heart attack.

He was born in Waukesha and was a salesman for the Quality Biscuit co. for 25 years before retiring eight years ago because of ill health.

Staub lived in Waukesha almost all his life and left here last April to live at his summer home. He suffered a heart attack on Crescent lake Sunday while fishing with his son, Frank Paul Staub. He was taken to his home but efforts by a doctor to revive him failed.
