2020 PSA Ladies Classic

The eighteenth PSA Ladies Classic is now in the history books. Fishing was tough but the ladies were not to be denied and headed out into very fishable waters early on Saturday, August 1, right on schedule. At 1:00 p.m. in the soggy Pentwater Village Marina Pavilion, the weigh-in was well received with many smiles on the ladies faces and surprises in the coolers.

Results were:

- 1st Place Big Fish - Fish Eagle – Captainette Jenna Sauser - 26.8 King Salmon
- 2nd Place - Most Fish – O Fish L Business - Captainette Kara Waite 9 fish – 99.75# of fish
- 3rd Place – Mystery Weight – Producer Fishing Team – Captainette Lyn Snider - fish weight closest to randomly selected mystery weight

Thirteen boats participated and eight boats weighed fish totaling 289.95 lbs. of fish; 12 King Salmon, 2 Coho Salmon, 7 Lake Trout and 2 Steelhead Trout. Fun was had by all with top prizes and trophies for the top three winners and other prizes for every boat entered.

The ladies were also treated to a good weather day on the Big Lake.

The ladies are already getting their teams together for next year. There was plenty of team spirit to be had and competition was rampant. The whole story and pictures are on the PSA web site. www.pentwaterpsa.org Look in the Events tab and then click onto the '2020 Results' tab at the bottom of the flyer.
