Another Florida Special Session Called on Insurance Crisis for after the November 8th Elections.

Gov. Ron DeSantis on Thursday said Florida legislative leaders agreed to hold a special session after the Nov. 8 election and before the end of the year to address the state's crumbling property insurance industry, an issue with increased urgency in the aftermath of Hurricane Ian, according to an article in Politico.com on October 20th. DeSantis also said the Legislature will provide property tax rebates to areas affected by the catastrophic storm, which left more than 100 people dead and destroyed some coastal communities.

The insurance crisis in Florida continues to be a red hot issue as many major insurance companies have pulled out of the state altogether and many more are poised to follow. Leaving homeowners with few options and Florida's state-backed Citizens Insurance dangerously overburdened.

- May's special session provided a $2 billion reinsurance fund to help protect insurance companies, however just one storm, Hurricane Ian has already resulted in over 500,000 claims worth over $6.5 billion.
- Citizens Insurance, Floridas insurer of 'last resort' has ballooned to over 1 million customers this past year because of insurers leaving the state or refusing to insure Floridians property.
- Legislation passed in May to reduce the number of claims and lawsuits filed by unscrupulous contractors taking advantage of Floridians with storm damaged property needs more.

Residents need to be aware of these issues as they will affect your ability to obtain and retain homeowners insurance policies on mobile homes. Last May legislators approved language that gives insurers the right to REQUIRE homeowner repair or replace older roofs or windows BEFORE WRITING new or replacement policies. A new proposal for the upcoming session is to PRORATE the replacement value of the homeowners roof based on its age. So if your roof is blown off in a hurricane, and is near the end of a twenty year life span, regular less of condition, then you will close to NOTHING (or a very small percentage) in replacement value. This will be done to force homeowners to get their homes inspected and roofs replaced much sooner; paid out of homeowners pocket as a maintenance cost.

We will try to keep our residents abreast of legislative issues that affect you, in an informative, apolitical manner. As homeowners in Oaks Royal 3 it is your right to voice your opinions on these matters to your state representatives.

Officer and Director Reports.

President - Ann Parks

Its great to be back home in Oaks Royal 3 and looking forward to the winter season.

This summer presented itself with several challenges between the pool and clubhouse. I would like to thank Larry Way, Kelvin Hatt and Mark St. Pierra for all their hard work and keeping me informed as they worked to solve the issues.

Thank You to Louise Harmer, Kathy Hatt and I think Shirley Finefrock had a part in it to, for keeping Social activities going for the summer.

Dorothy Dodge has volunteered to as Social Director filling Sharon Pollard's position as she in turn moves to fill the Secretary position left vacant when Dale Shiner sold his home this past spring. What a surprise and relief to receive her (Dorothy's) phone call to volunteer; it is greatly appreciated.

We have three (3) positions coming up for election and as a board we discussed how nice it would be to have full time residence sit on the board. I encourage you to come talk to us if you are interested.

November 6, 2022 at 3:00 will be HOA board meeting with November 7, 2022 HOA Meeting.

November, 11 2022 we will be hosting East Pasco Resident Owned Communities, Inc. (EPROC) monthly meeting. Oaks Royal 3 is a member, and it gives board members an opportunity to exchange ideas and share information.

Vice President, Mark St. Pierre

At The Library, Donna Birch

It's that time of year again when the highways and byways of New England become clogged with autos from all parts of the country to become one with nature as the trees turn from green to shades of red, orange and yellow. The locals are very content to remain home and view the foliage in their own back yards and neighborhoods. The downside is that now all the fallen leaves need to be raked and a place found to dispose of them as another natural life cycle is temporarily ended, only to begin again in the Spring.

I am happy to provide the following new books for our clubhouse library:

FICTION: If you have not yet discovered the Mitford series the first book is; AT HOME IN MITFORD which was found in Big Print. We have the whole series and it is highly recommended.

For those who prefer books on tape, we have IN THE COMPANY OF OTHERS.....also a Father Tim novel.

SWEET TOMORROWS...A Rose Harbor novel by Debbie Macomber

WINTER SOLSTICE By Rosamunde Pilcher

PONTOON, A Lake Wobegon novel by Garrison Keillor

RUN ROSE RUN By Dolly Parton and James Patterson

SUNDAYS AT TIFFANY'S .....also by James Patterson

OLIVE KITTERIDGE By Elizabeth Strout

THE BEST OF ME by Nicholas Sparks

THE MESSY LIVES OF BOOK PEOPLE By Phaedra Patrick

THE WARNING By James Patterson

HEART AND SOUL by Maeve Binchy

NON-FICTION ; KIDS SAY THE DARNDDEST THINGS by Art Linkletter

EVERYTHING BEAUTIFUL IN ITS TIME (Seasons of love and loss) by Jenna Bush Hager- "coanchor of the Today show shares moving, funny stories about her beloved grandparents and the wisdom they passed on...."

For baseball fans, especially the Boston Red Sox - FAITHFUL by Stewart O'Nan and Stephen King

ANY GIVEN DAY - The life and times of Jessie Lee Brown Foveaux- a memoir of twentieth-century America

A LONG WAY FROM HOME - growing up in the American Heartland By Tom Brokaw SPOKEN FROM THE HEART By Laura Bush - one of our first ladies tells her own extraordinary story.

DREAM TOWN By David Baldacci     DREAMLAND By Nicholas Sparks

SUGAR AND SALT BY Susan Wiggs

Thanks to Lideth Brueggemann and Debby Weadick for taking care of the library this summer. I know it is easy to read the modern electric books; however, there is a satisfying feeling of holding a real book with real pages and chapters. I hope you are all taking advantage of our clubhouse library.

QUOTES OF THE DAY; "He seemed to be doing everything wrong, yet everything came out right. He stopped everything behind the plate and hit everything in front of it." Mel Ott about Yogi Berra

"It aint over till it's over" Yogi Berra

I hope all the baseball fans enjoy the upcoming World Series!
