Historical Note: The “Schubertiade” tradition dates back to composer Franz Schubert’s lifetime in Vienna (1797-1828), when Schubert’s friends gathered for evening house parties dedicated to his and others’ music. Since then, it has become a favorite way to gather Classical and Romantic music fans for a relaxed afternoon or evening of chamber music and refreshments. Detels has organized many such events during her teaching career at the University of Arkansas Dept. of Music (1982-2008), and this is the 5th annual Schubertiade she has organized and hosted since moving to Taos in 2014.

With Profound Gratitude to our Concert Hosts: Bob and Suzanne Brock, January 26 and Jean Mayer and The Hotel Saint Bernard, January 27, Lucile Leigh Grieder for Hospitality Coordination, and to our Generous Donors
