Tucker Update

by Pat Soltys

A lot is happening in Tucker as our city continues to develop the infrastructure that will frame future growth and development.

November 17 was the "Tucker Tomorrow" kick-off meeting to begin the process of developing a comprehensive plan for the city. Over 150 people attended the meeting to hear and share ideas for Tucker's comprehensive plan with the appointed steering committee, staff, Mayor and council members. This is only the first of many meetings and events to be held as the plan is developed. All Tucker citizens are encouraged to get involved, attend the meetings and share ideas.

There is high interest in the community and the newly developing city of Tucker over the Sears property plans. The transformation from vacated warehouses to development aligned with the needs of the community and desired growth of the city affect us all. The proposed development project at the intersection of Hugh Howell and Mountain Industrial, known as the "Sears Project" has changed significantly since first presented. Stephen McCauley, McCauley Investments LLC, developer has presented a revised plan in which the movie studio is no longer a component and the number of housing units has been increased.

Recommendations by staff and the Community Council were to deny zoning variance requests by the developer for the project. On November 14, the City council held the first reading of the zoning variances requested by the developer. A vote will be taken after they have fully considered the request. The zoning requested by the developer is MU5-- high density and multi-use. Current zoning is light industrial with one parcel listed as multiple zoning. Zoning change requests are carefully considered, as the impact is significant and difficult to change in the future. Although a vote has not been officially taken, it appears that a change in zoning is unlikely to be approved.

The developer has also requested significant tax abatements for the non-residential properties with a 75% abatement for 25 years. While abatements are not unusual in development projects, this amount if granted, would set a precedent that would be difficult to replicate in future development projects

The Zoning Board of Appeals was sworn in on November 15. The new board heard a request for a sign variance for the new Tucker Meridian project at Lavista Rd. and Northlake Parkway. The applicant requested a deferral to the December 20th meeting.

Tucker will soon have access to a municipal court through an agreement with the City of Clarkston until a court is established in Tucker. City Hall is bustling and bursting at the seams. Early in 2017, a City Hall annex will open on First Street and will be the site for all meetings. The website www.tuckerga.gov/ is a "citizen friendly" site robust in information, calendars

UPS And Smoke Rise Country Club Make Deliveries in Kanawha Easy This Holiday

In December, UPS will be placing a 'POD' in the parking lot of the Smoke Rise Country Club. This innovative delivery solution has been used in several other areas of the Metro Atlanta Region during peak delivery season. The POD is used as a home delivery base for the community, utilizing a golf cart(s) with a pull behind trailer. All the delivery packages for the day will be brought out by a UPS delivery truck in the A.M. and off-loaded into the UNIT. A uniformed UPS employee would then begin delivering the neighborhood with the golf cart until all deliveries are complete. The POD will store the golf cart and trailer at night. The POD will be used until mid January.

New DeKalb Website

Added features include social media interaction, improved search capabilities

For the first time in approximately seven years, DeKalb County has updated its nearly 2,400-page website to make it more user-friendly, customer-focused and easy to update. The new website is adaptable on mobile devices and easily translates into dozens of languages.

"We have been rebuilding our website to create greater access, transparency and responsiveness," said DeKalb Interim CEO Lee May. "The website is a tool most people use as the primary interface with government and government resources. It should change and grow with technology."

The new website features a number of improvements to enhance the user experience.

- Responsive to mobile devices
- Improved menu structure: Content is organized by subject to make the most popular requests easy to locate.
- Google Language Translator makes the website accessible to all of DeKalb's diverse cultures.
- Social media feeds
- Calendar and event management: With just a click, county events can auto-populate users' calendar and/or Google Map applications.
- ADA compliant for those with visual impairments.
- Searchable contact pages

Stone Mountain Community Improvement District

Several items noted on the CID website www.smokerise.cid.com might interest Smoke Rise residents in the coming months.

The Georgia DOT plans a 'massive' road project on the interchange of I-285 and GA 400, creating new flyover ramps and new exit/ merge lanes to help alleviate traffic congestion in and out of Cumming, Alpharetta and Roswell. As the project launches and people seek alternate routes to these locations, traffic along the Mountain Industrial and Jimmy Carter Boulevards could increase by as much as 20%. A video detailing this project can be viewed at <http://www.stonemountaincid.com/massive-road-project-likely-to-impact-cid/>.

The Hugh Howell Road/Mountain Industrial Boulevard intersection has been a very congested and often dangerous intersection for some time now. Several years ago the Stone Mountain CID funded a $20,000 traffic study/conceptual design study hoping that this type of forward thinking might help them secure federal funding. Recently, the CID was notified that the intersection qualified under one such funding program. The design phase of the study will begin in early 2017 with actual road construction following in 2018.

Breakfast with Santa to Benefit Stone Mountain Co-op

MOUNTAIN CREEK - THE CLUB FOR ALL SEASONS

Summer is over but the fun continued in November with a Games Night on November 12th. We enjoyed delicious spaghetti dinner and games that included Bingo and Backgammon (Chinese checkers).

We will continue a December tradition in Mountain Creek ~ setting out luminaries in front of every house in the subdivision! This tradition originated in North America with luminaries made from bonfires of crisscrossed pinon boughs arranged in 3-foot high squares. Later luminaries were small paper lanterns, which were made when colored paper was brought to this continent from the Orient.

Instead of hanging these delicate lanterns from trees or on wires, they were placed on the ground, on rooftops and along pathways. In recent years, the use of luminaries has expanded so that they're used throughout the year at parties, weddings, religious ceremonies, and charitable events.

Mountain Creek invites our Smoke Rise neighbors to join us for this beautiful holiday tradition! Votive candles, set out in bags of sand during the afternoon, will be lit at dusk. Then join us at 2200 Mountain Lane for a bonfire, Christmas songs, hot chocolate, and cookies!

Looking forward to seeing everyone on Saturday, December 17th!

Mountain Creek continues special events throughout the year. Stay informed on what's happening by visiting our Facebook page, our website at MountainCreekSwimClub.com, or call 678-824-2108.

A Whole Lot of Christmas!

It's beginning to look at lot like Christmas everywhere you go! That sentiment is definitely true at 1833 Smokerise Summit. The holiday season is in full swing, and Santa Claus is preparing for his weekend visits to take photos in his sleigh. As in years past, donations are being collected for the Make-A-Wish Foundation. We are hoping to exceed last year's total, and reach our new goal of $5,000. Please stop by anytime after 6:00 p.m. to enjoy the lights, and spread a little Christmas cheer!

The GFWC Stone Mountain Woman’s Club sponsored “Take a Veteran to School” Day at Smoke Rise Elementary School on Wednesday, November 10. Veterans visited classes in the second through fifth grades and told of their military experiences. Members of the school Beta Club served as hosts and hostesses to escort the men to the classrooms. Mrs. Brenda Ali, Parent Liaison, did the scheduling for the event. Mrs. Ames and Dr. Ronica Paul, Smoke Rise teachers, are also veterans. Mrs. Ames wore her uniform to school for the day! The students learned about history from those who have made it with their service to our country.

If you would like to be a part of this great day next year, please contact Barbara Luton. 770-491-6711, barluton@aol.com.

Smoke Rise Elementary

A Poetic Note by Caroline Croom

Smoke Rise Elementary, the school that strives to lead,
 Grooming our students to be good citizens in the time of need.
 Our boys and girls are making reading progress,
 We all see their Accelerated Reader success;
 They are handling their business to be the best.
 Spotlighting S.T.E.M. education,
 Apart of the road to graduation.
 By highlighting our newly created logo and new robotics club,
 Here in the south, we want to be looked at as a brand-new hub.
 Competing in the First Lego League competition in December,
 We want it to be an event that all of our students remember.
 We want to create experiences for our students to understand compliance,
 Being judged on team cooperation, the robotics mission, and problem solving alliance.
 We’re also planting mental and physical seeds and sprouts for the Smoke Rise garden,
 Growing kale, collards, carrots, and character, hoping their hearts never harden.
 P.E. and art classes are making S.T.E.M. collaborations too,
 Their outside experiments showed the effects of ultraviolet light that turned blue.
 And without further ado, a special thank you to the Stone Mountain Woman’s Club for always being there,
 Your countless hours of volunteering, reading, and tutoring, turns a daily routine into an appreciated AFFAIR!

On October 15, 2016 several members of BSA Troop 876 participated in the Rivers Alive Cleanup service project. Rivers Alive is a yearly cleanup project that uses volunteers to cleanup waterways throughout the state. This year we worked at a site away from the river. The scouts worked to pick up trash, tires, boxes, and other items that have the potential to pollute the river. These items are also harmful for the fish and other wildlife that live in this habitat. The scouts of BSA Troop 876 felt proud to make a difference in their community. (Will Stephens, Troop Historian).

FODAC Annual Golf Tournament
Raises over $25,000

Friends of Disabled Adults and Children (FODAC) held its Annual FODAC Golf Classic Fundraiser on Wednesday, October 12 at Bear's Best Golf Course in Suwanee, Georgia. The Rotary Club of Stone Mountain provided volunteers to work the tournament as well as some golfers to play. The event hosted 88 golfers and raised over $25,000 to support FODAC's mission of providing durable medical equipment (DME) at little to no charge to those in need.

Winning first place at the tournament with a score of 53 was the foursome of Dwight Standridge (Jefferson), Derek Conley (Athens), Justin Brown (Commerce) and Zach Kles (Athens).

Rotarian Gene Fleeman and some of his fellow Stone Mountain club members are touring local DeKalb schools with the "Soda Straw Rocket Competition," an interactive workshop teaching students how to build a rocket using basic art materials while teaching them physics and mathematics. Gene, a retired aerospace engineer, and his volunteers from the Stone Mountain club have brought the hour-long workshop to seven DeKalb schools, including Smoke Rise Elementary, Brockett Elementary and Stone Mountain Middle, where the fusion of fun and education connected the students with science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) fundamentals. Gene and his program were recently profiled in DeKalb County paper

The Rotary Club of Stone Mountain joined with The Rotary Club of Tucker in November to sponsor an Electronics Recycling Day at First Christian Church of Atlanta in Tucker. The event, benefitting Friends of Disabled Adults and Children (FODAC), collected seven and a half pallets of electronics that would otherwise have ended up in landfills; working electronics went to FODAC's thrift store for resale and non-working electronics were sold to recyclers. In addition to electronics, Rotarians collected $150 in cash donations to support FODAC's mission of refurbishing and redistributing durable medical equipment (DME) to the disabled.

As the holidays approach we turn our attention to family, friends and celebrations. We may even let our guard down because our heart turns to cheer and good will. There are members of society who would take advantage of our good nature and that is sad.

I am not recommending the product listed below however security is something we take seriously. Consider using something like this if you will be away.

"Nightlock" Security Lock Door

This note about a possible scam was given to me. Please be alert when someone comes to your door!

"There may be someone who arrives at your home claiming they are from the Water Company, to install shower caps, to save water. Or they will claim they are from Electricity Company to change energy-saving electric bulbs for free as part of government lay down program. They have been spotted in so many areas. Please be very careful, it has been said, they are robbing people at gun-point."

I am not personally aware if this is valid or not, however I felt the need to share what was given to me. Never open your door to a stranger. Speak to them through a closed door or intercom.

Smoke Rise Country Club Introduces New General Manager

We are pleased to announce that our new General Manager will be Rob Sabat, who previously worked with Mosaic as the Assistant GM in their very successful turnaround of The Manor Golf & Country Club in Alpharetta. Before and after that engagement, Rob worked at Woodmont Golf & Country Club in Canton. Rob has extensive Food and Beverage expertise, from which we will certainly benefit as we continue our quest to consistently provide an outstanding F&B experience for our Members and their guests.

Rob joined us effective November 15, and he is looking forward to getting to know all of our Member families. We will be scheduling a welcome reception for Rob in the near future.

Thanks to all of our staff for the excellent job they have done maintaining a great quality country club experience under difficult circumstances. Working without a GM for nearly two months, everyone on the staff has pulled together and they truly have made us proud! We know they will continue to do that under Rob's and Mosaic's leadership in the months and years to come.

HEALTH NOTES:

by Cheri Schneider, M.D.

Hookah? Or Hooked?

Last month I wrote about electronic cigarettes and “vaping”. This month I thought I would follow up with an article on the equally popular Hookah smoking. In the Middle East, the Hookah, or “water pipe” as it is sometimes known, has traditionally been a vehicle for smoking opium and hashish. In the U.S., most hookah bars offer a selection of tobacco types and flavorings to mix with the tobacco. Hookah aficionados, like cigar lovers, are quite versed in the different types and flavors of tobacco they enjoy.

The hookah pipe has several parts. First, tobacco is packed into a bowl, which is then covered with aluminum foil that has air vents poked into it. Preheated embers or charcoal are placed on top of the bowl to heat the tobacco. Smoke from the heated tobacco is filtered through water, or sometimes flavored liquids, and then is inhaled through a rubber hose with a detachable mouthpiece. The hookah pipe can have multiple mouthpieces and be used as a communal pipe, or a single mouthpiece can be passed from person to person or used alone. Obviously, pipes passed from person to person can also transmit diseases like oral herpes, TB, upper respiratory viruses and influenza.

Is hookah smoking better or worse than regular cigarette smoking? Consider the following differences: A cigarette is usually smoked in about twenty puffs over five to ten minutes of time. Hookah smokers puff fifty to two hundred times in a one-hour session. This is a difference of about 500 cubic centimeters of cigarette smoke versus 90,000 cubic centimeters of smoke from a hookah—which is often inhaled much more deeply. Carbon monoxide, a component of smoke from any source, is also found in much higher levels in hookah smokers. Carbon monoxide levels in smokers are naturally higher than levels found in the non-smoking population (9% vs 2-5%). In hookah smokers, carbon monoxide levels (measured as ‘carboxy-hemoglobin’) as high as 26% have been reported! This is high enough to require treatment in the hospital!

Like E-cigarette studies, little long-term data exists on the effects of flavorings and tobacco from hookah on the body. Yet! Several chemicals released in hookah smoke are known to be toxic or are known carcinogens: nitrosamines, benzene, formaldehyde, and heavy metals like arsenic, chromium and lead.

Lastly, like E-cigarette smokers, hookah smokers often ‘dual-smoke’. This means they also smoke regular cigarettes in addition to hookah. ‘Hookah bars’, are popping up all over the place, heavily targeting areas that 18-24 years olds hang out... like college campuses. Encourage your younger neighbors to consider these facts when deciding if hookah is really a cool social activity to partake in!

Knowledge + Information = Savings!
Saving on Natural Gas

Are you paying too much for natural gas? Let’s investigate this. In our area, most homes are heated with natural gas costing about $1,000 annually. You can add your own bills up to see if that is where you land, but the bottom line is, if it is more, you may be paying too much. Who you select for your gas retailer makes a difference in how much you pay each year for heat.

As readers of this column know, I believe in keeping our dollars here in our Smoke Rise community whenever possible. So I will for a second time devote this article to how you can save some money in the selection of a natural gas retailer. This is timely because the best time to lock-in a 12 to 18 month gas rate is in the fall. I recommend locking in a rate instead of going month-to-month where you are exposed to volatility in the market-place and might do better in some months, but risk doing far worse in other months.

In 1997, the Georgia General Assembly deregulated the natural gas industry. Atlanta Gas Light (AGL) became the gas wholesaler providing gas, reading the gas meters, and providing the local pipelines for retailers who then buy the natural gas, deliver it through the interstate pipelines, and provide billing and customer service. AGL’s retail operations became Georgia Natural Gas, which is now one of 14 natural gas retailers operating in Georgia according to the Public Service Commission (PSC) website. Some of the retailers are local, and some are out-of-state investor owned utilities. Two utilities- True Natural Gas and Walton EMC- are operations of Georgia-based, not-for-profit, electric membership cooperatives.

These two retailers run neck-and-neck in having the lowest overall price, in what the Public Service Commission website (www.psc.state.ga.us) shows as “apples-to-apples” price. The apples-to-apples designation refers to factoring in service and other fees to give a fair comparison. This is why you can’t believe every TV ad or postcard mailed to you home about low per therm costs. Some retailers show low per therm rates but have higher monthly service fees that hide the fact you are paying more than you think. In the chart, you can see the 3-year history of several retailer’s rates and how they vary over time. What you won’t see in the chart is that True Natural Gas also gives a loyalty discount allowing customers to save on each bill with a credit toward their monthly service fee once eligibility is met. And the longer you stay, the more you save. Stay long enough and your monthly customer service charge could be as low as $3.45 a month versus $5.95. That’s a $30.00 per year extra savings. In November they offered an 18-month fixed rate of $0.443/per therm and the lowest published 12-month fixed rate of $0.398/therm. Mention you are a Smoke Rise resident learning about them from the Smoke Signal, and get the additional advantage of no credit check, no deposit, and no switching fee.

NEWS YOU CAN USE

Be Smart with Your Online Purchases

Online shopping can be fun, but you should always have your guard up – especially during the Holiday season. Many people like going online to easily find the perfect gift and save time, but they can also end up with identity theft, malware, and other cyber unpleasantness. To reduce your chances of becoming a cyber-victim, be sure to observe a few simple security precautions.

You can minimize your risk with the following:

1. Do not shop on public computers or with public wireless Internet access. They may contain viruses and other malware that steal your information.
2. Protect your computer and mobile devices. Be sure to use up-to-date antivirus protection, and make sure each device is receiving updates.
3. Use strong, unique passwords for each online account. A strong password uses more than 10 characters, with numbers, special characters, and upper and lower case letters.
4. Use a credit card to pay online – not debit cards. Credit cards are protected by the Fair Credit Billing Act and may limit your liability if your information was stolen or used improperly. Always check your statements regularly and carefully.
5. Look for “https” in the Internet address (URL) when making an online purchase. The “s” in “https” stands for “secure” and indicates that communication with the webpage is encrypted. Alternatively, look for the lock symbol (it’s sometimes green) in the Internet address bar.
6. Beware of “pop-ups” that claim items are “free” or available at a very low price. Sometimes a refundable deposit is requested, other times, direct access to your social media account is requested. These are scams intending to victimize you and your friends. Close the ad by pressing Control + F4 on a Windows computer and Command + W on a Mac.
7. Do not auto-save personal information. You may be given the option to save your personal information online for future use – don’t do it. Consider if the convenience is really worth the risk.

There are several Internet sites that help debunk scams. The Federal Trade Commission has a great website devoted to sharing information on scams. Go to: <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/scam-alerts>. Also, be sure to check out the Internet Crime Complaint Center: <http://www.ic3.gov/default.aspx>. Whenever I get an email warning about a new theft ring, or a free offer, I go to the Urban Legends Reference Pages to investigate. You can find that site online at <http://www.snopes.com>.

The bottom line is – use precautions each and every time you are online. If you do encounter problems with an online shopping site, contact the seller or company directly to resolve any issues. You may also contact the state’s Attorney General’s Office, the Consumer Protection Agency, or the Better Business Bureau - www.bbb.org.

 Volunteer to Help Senior Connections
 Meals on Wheels this Season!

More than 15,000 nutritious meals are prepared weekly out of Senior Connections’ main kitchen in Chamblee, and meals are distributed from its Chamblee and Decatur centers throughout metro Atlanta and middle Georgia. Most of the organization’s local meal preparation and delivery is handled by volunteers, who donate anywhere from just a few hours on one day to a regular weekly commitment of time. Senior Connections is especially looking for volunteers during November and December to pick up duties from those who are busy with their own families or may be traveling during the holidays.

“For many seniors, the volunteer who delivers that meal may be the only person they will see all day, and the meal may be the only healthy one they have that day,” said Furtado. “We rely on an army of volunteers to support our Meals on Wheels program, and we hope that everyone will consider sharing their time during this holiday season. That brief moment of personal connection will nourish the volunteer and senior alike, and what better gift could you give or receive than that?”

Volunteer opportunities at Senior Connections are available for meal delivery drivers and food prep / kitchen personnel the week prior to Thanksgiving and all throughout the holiday season; contact Senior Connections’ Volunteer Services at seniorconnection-satl.org/volunteer or call 770-455-7602.

Mountain Mums Garden Club

The Mountain Mums Garden Club had a very interesting and active meeting in November. On November 9, the Mums met at the old Browning Courthouse in Tucker. There, Trish England, a founding member of the Tucker Historical Society (THS) and 15 year board member, shared with us the history of the courthouse and much of Tucker. Although not on the list of historic places (because it was moved), it has the original cedar shakes and tin roof. It badly needs painting due to termite destruction and lead based paint... and will cost approximately $16,000 to complete. Currently the THS is taking donations for the project and selling books about Tucker history at stores in the Tucker area. The original ledgers from the courthouse have been bound and can be viewed on site.

Trish also told us how Tucker had a large garden club, started in 1934. It is now defunct, but the records are preserved in spite of a clubhouse fire several years ago.

The Mountain Mums then met Matt Houser, a Professional Landscape Architect, Urban Planner and Capital Program Manager with CH2M who took us on a tour of three of the ten park or green space sites in Tucker. Tucker has yet to take over the Park and Recreation Department from DeKalb County. They have two years from May of 2016 in which to choose to do this. Mr. Houser told the garden club group that three parks: Johns Homestead Park, Henderson Park and Cofer Park have dams holding back lakes. Currently they have not been well maintained and will need more than $1 million for dredging, repair and maintenance. Tucker Recreation building may also need significant work to rid it of lead based paint, asbestos and mastic from floor tiles. This could cost nearly $100,000. Additionally, the swimming pool at Cofer pools is aged and needs significant modernization. It also could cost nearly $1 million to update. The bottom line is, that it is a very expensive thing to take over the Parks and Recreation Department. Much planning and investigating are actively occurring to create a master plan for Tucker Parks and Recreation. Mr. Houser said, the good thing, is that Tucker's parks have 'great bones' to work with.

Mr. Houser then spoke briefly about how funding for Parks and Recreation would likely occur. Beside collection of Franchise fees already in the budget, they would consider issuing bonds. Then, he anticipates that Tucker would receive a share of the county-wide SPLOST, which is being reworked before it will be voted upon. Negotiation with DeKalb County will be key. Please attend any community meetings regarding this important topic! Clearly this will take time to work out!

The Mountain Mums next meet at the Smoke Rise Country Club for their Christmas Luncheon. Please call Carol Wales at 908-229-4179 or email her cawale@hotmail.com for more information.

Georgia Pecans for the Holidays

While many area residents received their delivery from Mountain Shadow Garden Club (MSGC) in November, the group will continue to offer pecans during December until the supply is gone.

Despite earlier weather concerns, the newly harvested crop from south Georgia turned out well and the pecans are high quality as usual, noted Scott Uthlaut of MSGC. And the prices of pecans from the garden club are the same as last year.

The annual "Georgia Pecans for the Holidays" sale by MSGC has become a local. Several options are available for those who still need pecans. Please e-mail msgcpecans@gmail.com or call one of these phone numbers: 770-923-9762, 404-296-7317, or 404-915-7132.

- Mountain Shadow Garden Club pecans will also be available for purchase at these locations: The Garden Enthusiast, 2316D Main St., Tucker, GA 30084 Phone 404-474-7072

- Hall's Flower Shop, 5706 Memorial Dr., Stone Mountain, GA 30083 Phone 404-292-8446

The proceeds from this effort enable MSGC to fund a scholarship for a student at Gwinnett Tech each year and to help support a children's garden and other community programs.

Morning Glories Garden Club Enjoys Tree Care 101 Lecture

November's meeting was a primer on tree care from expert Peter Jenkins. Peter "Treeman" Jenkins is an ISA certified arborist who owns the company, Trees Inspection.com. He offered us some very pertinent insights into tree care and management. His website www.treeinspection.com is full of helpful information about trees and tree care. "How to Spot a Dangerous Tree" may be especially helpful as you evaluate the trees on your property.

Smoke Rise is filled with many lovely species of trees of all ages. Examining your trees each year to observe their growth and identify any issues that need to be addressed is good stewardship. Mr. Jenkins suggested a four-zone inspection for every homeowner. First, look at the tree as whole. Does it look full and lush with normal foliage, or is it thinning, leaning and etc.? Second, look at the base of the tree. The presence of fungi may or may not indicate a problem, depending on the type of fungus. Third, look at the trunk. Do you see borers? Do you see 'toothpicks' that indicate the Ambrosia Beetle infestation or other insects? Lastly, look at crown of the tree. Is it full? Are there broken limbs or brown leaves at the wrong time of year? If there is an issue, Mr. Jenkins advised us to call a certified arborist.

Peter shared numerous tree tales: from cat rescues to destruction of homes or cars by trees falling due to storms or fungal infestations. He also noted that with our current drought we should be especially diligent in observing and maintaining the health of our wonderful tree canopy.

The Morning Glories met at the home of Joyce Ray. Our hostesses for the luncheon were Judy Abrams, Betty Curlee and Ruth Ann Hill. President Glendolyn Hallman reminded the group that we will be meeting on December 1st to decorate the historic Wells-Brown house in period correct holiday décor- always a fun event for the club. We discussed a new service project for the 2016-2017 club year that will focus on providing Christmas gifts and other needs to the local Battered Women's Shelter. More details will follow after our December meeting.

Smoke Rise Garden Club

Our club painted stockings and filled gift boxes at our November meeting. It was an enjoyable evening. This project really helps to promote the spirit of the season and the children at Egleson look forward to the gift boxes, as do the patients at Central State who enjoy the Christmas stockings. Thanks to Deb Christensen, our hostess and co-hostesses Peggy Clegg and Denise Finley, who kept us nourished with delicious cookies, cakes and other assortment of goodies. Two neighbors stopped by to give us a hand, Gloria De Andrade and Pam Erdman. These ladies said they might be interested in joining our club. We would be very pleased if they would.

Hostesses Peggy Clegg, Deb Christensen, Denise Finley

The first week in December is when our club refurbishes wreaths and decorates the corners along Hugh Howell for the holiday season. This is also an enjoyable time for our members who like the hands-on crafting and fellowship.

Our club is a member of the DeKalb Federation of Garden clubs. Their location is in the grand old Callanwolde estate. Every third Thursday excellent programs are presented for the seasoned as well as the beginning gardener.

If you are interested in joining or learning more about garden clubs, please contact Jane Culbertson at 770-938-3060 or destovan@aol.com.

HODGE PODGE

By Jenny Hall

This time of year I start to feel the panic rise, realizing that I have done little or nothing to prepare for the holidays yet. There is still a Halloween owl sitting on my stair case. He's going to get a little Santa hat to cover the dust. However, I am prone to sudden bursts of energy when I cook, decorate or buy gifts. This brings on an affliction that I like to call bi-purchase angst. That's the feeling you get when you buy a great gift, take it home and then realize that you really, really need two of these amazing and charming items, only to return to the store to find that they are sold out forever in all stores in the Western Hemisphere. Why didn't I buy two? Why? Why?!!! Even though I'm sure to spend more on the dog than my family I know we all need easy, thoughtful gifts to give so that our human friends will think that we are nice, charming and capable of operating kitchen appliances other than the can opener. These recipes are not complicated, or elaborate or even all that unusual. What they are is easy, so that you can host a brunch, tea or party that won't have your guests fleeing in terror from your house, even with the Halloween Santa owl.

Raspberry Salad Dressing

- 1 (10-oz.) jar seedless raspberry all-fruit spread - like Polaner's®
- 1 clove of minced garlic (optional)
- 1/2 cup plain white rice vinegar - don't get flavored
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil other than olive oil
- A tiny dash of cayenne pepper

Just blend this all together until really combined. Taste and add more vinegar if you want to...or salt and pepper. It's delicious on this winter salad:

- 1 package salad greens, or fresh baby spinach...enough for 4
- 1 orange, peeled and sectioned
- 1 pear, sliced into about 12 sections
- Thin slices of sweet onion if desired
- Bleu cheese crumbles if desired
- 1/2 cup dried cranberries
- 1/2 cup toasted walnuts, pecans or almonds

Divide greens among four plates. Divide remaining ingredients equally and artistically to impress everyone. Drizzle with raspberry dressing.

So easy, I'm ashamed to share it

Gingerbread with Custard Sauce

Gingerbread: Take 1 box of Gingerbread Mix. Make it. Cool it. Cut it into squares to serve eight. Pour "custard" sauce over or around and pretend it took you all day.

"Custard Sauce": Mix together 1 box instant cheesecake flavored pudding, 3 cups of whole milk, and 1/4 cup heavy cream. Let sit. Taste and decide if it's the pourable consistency you want. Stir it again and decide it will do. Pour over gingerbread, add a dash of nutmeg and tell everyone how difficult your life is but that it's Christmas and nothing is too much trouble for those you love.

This next recipe is an oldie but goodie. Make at least a day ahead. The leftovers can easily be stirred together and re-used if put in a darling little serving bowl. I often use this same mixture mixed with mayonnaise and prepared mustard as a spread for ham and rolls. It's very versatile and lasts a long time in refrigerator.

Good Ol' Jezebel Sauce

Mix together equal amounts of pineapple preserves and apple jelly. 8-ounce or a 10-ounce jars are fine. Add 2 Tablespoons dry mustard, 1 teaspoon pepper and half a jar of prepared horseradish. NOTE: use half a jar and let this mixture sit for a few hours in refrigerator. Taste it, and if it's not zippy enough, add the rest of the jar of horseradish. The original recipe calls for a full 5-ounce jar. Refrigerate 24 hours and serve over a block of cream cheese with crackers.

My Favorite Fudge

- 1 can condensed milk
- 1 large bag milk chocolate chips
- 1 small bag semisweet chocolate chips
- 1 cup chopped toasted pecans

Lightly grease an 8" square pan. Heat condensed milk in heavy saucepan until it's fairly hot, stirring continuously so it won't stick. Just before it boils, remove from heat and add chips. Stir until melted. Stir in pecans and immediately pour into pan. Spread and cool. Perfect. Every single time. If you are ambitious, roll the mixture into balls while it's still a little warm, roll in cocoa, sprinkles, or chopped nuts and tell everyone this is your best truffle recipe. Well, it's my best truffle recipe. Merry Christmas from Santa Owl and me!

DeKalb County Adds Water Bill Dispute Locations

DeKalb County residents wishing to dispute their water bills now have additional times and locations throughout the county to begin the dispute process.

In September, DeKalb Interim CEO Lee May issued a moratorium through the end of 2016 on the disconnection of residential water accounts that have been contested through the Utility Customer Operations Center's Customer Assurance Team.

At these locations, water customers will be able to speak with county representatives about their bills and place their accounts in dispute. During the dispute period, customers with disputed accounts will be required to pay their average bill based on 12 months or six billing cycles prior to the anomaly bill.

There will be no water service disconnections for customers whose accounts are in dispute and who have paid their average bill through the end of 2016.

In addition to notifying the Utility Customer Operations Center at 774 Jordan Lane in Decatur, or calling (404) 371-3000 to speak with a customer service representative, water customers can visit the following locations:
