Happy Holidays!

December, 2018

Web Site: www.puyallupeagles.org

From your Worthy President

Happy Holidays to all Daffodil members

My Brothers, Sisters, and Friends,

I hope that at the printing of this month's newsletter you have all had a happy and joyful Thanksgiving. I would like to wish all of you a wonderful Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year. Speaking of the new year, I would like to thank all of those who will be helping with the Aerie's Holiday Festivities to make our last month of December in this building memorable.

Many of you may have noticed that we have set up a section on the bulletin board for plans and updates to keep you all informed as to the progress with our new home. We have submitted a permit that will allow us to start demolition in the new building during the first week of January. The good news is that there was no asbestos found in samples, and that saves us from hiring a special contractor for this phase of the work. Please keep an eye out for updates as they come along.

A special thanks goes to Bernie Gregory, Sr. and Darrell Sharrick for their help with "Cans for Cubs" that is going to donate two of the aluminum cans proceeds to the local Cub Scout Pack that we are working with.

In some other news, our Auxiliary will be celebrating their 79th anniversary this month and I sincerely wish them many more years to come as their work in our Aerie is much appreciated. They will also be visited by the State Madam President at the Anniversary Dinner on Thursday, December 13 at 5 p.m.

I wish again that you all have a wonderful Christmas and New Year and hope to see you at the New Year's Party.

As always, I wish to thank you all for your continued support of the Aerie.

— Fraternally, Jonas White, Worthy President

Don't miss our last New Year's Party!!

New Years is coming and it will be our last New Year Eve Party in our Aerie before we move in May. Please come join the fun.

The Trustee's have lots of things for you starting with a prime rib dinner, a souvenir wine glass, hats, balloons, and maybe more surprises. Dinner will be served from 7 to 8 p.m. There will be no standing in line — dinner will be served to you. This is all for only $25 per person, so get your tickets early and pick the seats you want with your friends or make new ones. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, December 31.

From your Madam President

Thanks for stepping up during my illness

The month of October has come and gone. Unfortunately, I missed the biggest part of it, as well as the first two weeks of November. I understand that many of my Sisters stepped up and helped with the Children's Halloween Carnival and the Holiday Bazaar that was held on November 4.

If you wonder what Eagles do, just look around you at all the people who stepped up to help. I for one am very appreciative of all my Sisters and Brothers and the time they gave to keep the promise of a carnival for the children. I don't think I can ever say thank you enough for all they did.

On December 13, we will be celebrating our 79th Auxiliary Anniversary with a visit from State Madam President Karen Hildebrand. This will be the last time we will be celebrating our anniversary in this building, and I sincerely hope that many of you will take the time to come and celebrate with us. The theme this year is a "Country Christmas." The celebration begins at 5 p.m. with dinner at 5:30 p.m. There will be a baked potato bar at a cost of $7 with dessert being provided by the Aerie. I do hope you will attend.

This coming month will also be the last time we will be celebrating Christmas and New Years here. Hopefully many of you will attend the holiday festivities and share your memories of years past.

This past year many members have experienced various losses. The most devastating is the loss of loved ones. Whether they be family or friends, the loss is devastating. Some have experienced the loss of health and well-being. Through these losses we have also found how blessed we are having close friends and family to get us through such trying times. I for one am very thankful for my family helping me get through this second round of cancer. I am also very grateful and very blessed in having my Eagle Sisters and Brothers support me through this very difficult year. Your hugs and well wishes was the medicine needed to keep my spirits flying high and strong; so thank you, one and all.

Oysters on tap Dec. 2

Don't forget the oyster dinner on Sunday, December 2. It will be a fun day with bottle raffles, silent auction and dinner served by the Ballard Drill Team. The dinner is put on by the Aerie and Auxiliary Ritual Teams to represent Daffodil at the State and National Convention.

May the Blessings, the Peace and Love, this season brings, give you the Hope, and Happiness you are deserving of for the coming New Year.

— Colleen Horton, Your Madam President

Let's Toss Cancer Out!

Save the date for upcoming activities! The month of January has been designated by your Auxiliary and Aerie Art Ehrmann Cancer Fund Chairs as a fund-raising month to "Toss Cancer Out!" During the entire month of January, we hope you will toss your spare change into an empty prescription container. A supply of empty prescription containers will be located at the lobby desk.

Then we hope you'll toss some wine back at our Wine Tasting event on January 26 from 3 to 6 p.m.! The cost is $25 ($30 at the door) which includes a wine glass and six tasting coupons. Extra tasting coupons are $1 each.

Tickets will go on sale Saturday, December 29. Tickets may be purchased at the bar. There will be light appetizers, chocolate (of course!), door prizes, raffle baskets, and shopping from local vendors.

Donations of raffle baskets would be greatly appreciated. We also need volunteers to help on the event day in various capacities. If you're interested in volunteering, please contact us at:

tosscancerout@gmail.com

The net proceeds raised from these activities will benefit the South Sound CARE Foundation. Their mission is to bring groundbreaking clinical trials and cancer research to the South Sound region. The money stays in our community to help our community!

— Valerie and Brenda Coty,
Auxiliary Cancer Fund Co-Chairs

— Bob Ainsworth, Aerie Cancer Fund Chair

Trustees corner

Let's be charitable, kind and respectful

As we slowly turn our sights towards the holiday season, it's time to reflect on the basic tenants of being an Eagle: Charity, kindness and respect. As Trustees, we sometimes get reports of members placing other management or staff in a position to enforce the House Rules. The Aerie House Rules are a set of enforceable rules that govern our Aerie. I would suggest every member give themselves a refresher reading of the rules, specifically rules #4, #7, #16, #22, and #27. They are located on the wall near the book exchange.

It is imperative that, from the moment we step into our Aerie, we understand there are all different political, environmental, social and economic views and ideals. None are any better or worse than our own. We need to be aware of those differences as we conduct ourselves. If someone mentions that a person is being "over the top," we would expect that person to acknowledge the response and tone it down. In the case of further escalation, the Manager may intervene. In the event the Manager or a Trustee are not on site, the sole authority and action lies with the head bartender.

In our Aerie, as in life, be courteous, patient, tolerant and kind. Show your card before being asked and also when asked. It's a House and Washington State Liquor Control rule. Smile, be happy, have fun!!!

As always, feel free to leave comments in the suggestion box. If there is a subject you would like to see written about, leave that as well in the suggestion box. Come to a meeting, be a part of the process. It's YOUR Aerie, support it.

Texas Hold'em

Tournament of Champs right here December 9

We are so thankful for all the Texas Hold'em players who attended the November 11 game. Thank your Veterans for their service. Chilly weather brought in 75 players who warmed the hall up quickly with their kind words and laughter.

Winners were: First, Mel Garland; second, Garry Stearns; third, Dave Rice; fourth, Gary Stumph; fifth, Patty Brush; sixth, Tauave Pepe; seventh, Richard Milan; eighth, John DuQuin; and ninth, Konrad Larson. Congrats and best wishes to Konrad Larson as he goes in for ankle surgery.

Sunday, December 9 is "Tournament of Champions" day with a $100 buy-in. The game starts at noon. Please sign in by 11:45 a.m. There will be no extra chip for food donations as you will be receiving an extra $5,000 chip to play with for the game. This will be the last "Tournament of Champions" in this building, so please come and share the memories with us.

Mary is having a Bucket Raffle for Abused Children at the game, so please bring a couple extra $$$ and help this cause. If you have something to donate, it will be appreciated. We hope to see you on December 9. Thanks.

— Bob Reynolds & Crew

Bucket Raffle set for December 9!!

Bob and Mary Reynolds (State Father and Mother) will be having a Bucket Raffle on Sunday, December 9 for Jimmy Durante Fund for Abused Kids. There will be lots of different and nice items to win. Please come and support this charity event. We are trying to use up items that have been donated over the years.

We are turning the charity over to younger members and wish them well on fund-raising. If you have baskets or ???, make sure they are at the Eagles by 10 a.m. on December 9 or leave at Aerie with our names on them. Thanks for all the support over the years for "Da Kids." This is a charity we truly believe in and hope we helped the lives of those kids in need. Oh, by the way, it will no longer be called Jimmy Durante Fund after this year. Changes are coming in leaps and bounds in lots of areas. Thanks.

State and Aerie Jimmy Durante Chairman
