

NOTICE – Pond 20 – Future PCH Dinner Show Employment Opportunities

The Pacific Coast Historical (PCH) Dinner Show will be interviewing for the following positions. This is contingent on the San Diego Port District accepting our proposal to mitigate the “mitigation” of Pond 20 with our homegrown private enterprise. Our proposal is due to the Port District November 4, 2015. We will be asking for 18 months to put together personnel and financing for our Big Show.

Performers – Historic reenactments; Western, Mexican, Polynesian, and Surf dance routines; more....

- Actors
- Musicians / Singers / Dancers
- Stunt Persons Water / Land / Air
- Producers / Crew / Stage hands

Docents / Historians – Vintage accounts of local history brought to life, and more

- Native American History
- Naval History
- Tuna Industry History
- Ecological History

Writers / Storytellers – A new story with every show about “what it was like.....”

IT and Video – Educational, Documentaries, 4D experiences, and more

- Internet / Apps / Graphics
- Video / IMAX / Cinema Technicians

Retail Sales – Tijuana curious, surf and skate hardware and apparel, local trade goods, and more

Surfboard Shapers – Local surfboard shapers to show their skills, surf legend of the month, and more

Facilities Maintenance – Full time staff

- Facilities / Construction / Maintenance
- Janitorial
- Water Filtration Technicians

Drivers – Fleet of 8 buses, like Germaine’s Luau of Honolulu the show starts when guests enter the bus

- Bus & Valet

Management / Accounting – Full time staff

Bartenders – Quality craft beers and margaritas our specialty

Architects, Engineers, Designers and Drafters – We aim to be the best dinner show in the world

Corporate Level - How we manage staying the best, and secure our market share

- Executive Mgmt
- Corporate Law
- Corp Finance

Chefs / Waiters / Food Service Personnel – Famous for our street tacos, but let’s mix it up

Animal Trainers - We know who they are really coming to see

This employment opportunity list is not complete.

NOTE: Our initial goal is seven (7) shows per week, filling 1,200 seat arena, Thurs to Sunday. For comparison, Medieval Times Dinner show has up to sixteen (16) shows per week during peak season. Ask your City or Port representative how this opportunity compares to the “ecotourism” touted by the local environmental nonprofits (Wildcoast and SWIA) who want 100% control of every public asset?

Contact: roger@Pond20forUs.com www.Pond20forUs.com

The PCH Dinner Show is a Homegrown IB Area Institution - see www.PCHDinnerShow.com