

Avon Park Noon Rotary Blueberry Festival
VENDOR APPLICATION

The 11th Annual Blueberry Festival will be held on Saturday, April 23, 2022 at Donaldson Park, in historic downtown Avon Park.

We are pleased to invite you to participate in this event. However, several requirements exist for all potential vendors:

1. Food vendors may be highly limited and must not compete with the Rotary Club's offerings which includes chicken BBQ dinners. Cost for food vendor is $100, which includes electricity.
2. Vendors are required to remain in operation until the close of the event.
3. Only original, handmade arts & crafts items are acceptable; no resale novelty items are permitted.
4. Only items approved on application will be permitted on the day of event. We try our best to eliminate an overly competitive vending environment, and we want everyone to have a successful experience.
5. Rental fee will be due in full at time of application. If you are not chosen to participate your monies will be refunded and if due to Covid-19 restrictions, the festival is cancelled.
6. Because of safety and noise concerns no generators may be used.
7. The Avon Park Noon Rotary reserves the right to reject application or participation of vendors who do not abide by the established rules or Rotary's principles.

Each space is 10' x 10' and rents for $60. No electricity is provided. All applications will be treated as first come, first served (based on approval). Please include a picture of your work if you will be selling handmade arts and/or crafts.

Your application should be mailed to:

Nicky Dilday
P.O. Box 81
Avon Park, FL 33826

In the event of a cancellation of the Festival all fees will be quickly refunded by a check mailed to the address on the Vendor application. The festival is an outdoor event, social distancing between vendor slots will be used, and those in attendance will be strongly encouraged to wear face masks.
