ROSENBERG HANGS ON FOR FIRST GISBT CHAMPIONSHIP

KOLBERG WINS TITLE IN TOUR DEBUT

ROSENBERG PARLAYS BIG QUALIFYING LEAD INTO VICTORY

Kyle Rosenberg put on a phenomenal display during his qualifying round, and then watched that lead slowly evaporate before gathering himself just in the nick of time.

The 2-hander from Modesto, California overcame the challenging 39-foot plutonium lane pattern by averaging 233.50 for his 8 qualifying games. This easily outpaced the field, and that enabled him to roll into the finals with a bulging 179-pin edge. This was a stellar display, especially considering the boy's cut to match play fell at +9.

The champion began his match play round with a 147, but regrouped and ultimately headed into the position round with a slim 15-pin lead, setting up a championship tilt against his collegiate teammate Andrei Tacorda. Rosenberg won that match 225-184 to claim the title.

CHAMP IS NOW A 7-TIME FINALIST

Rosenberg was appearing in his 7th match play finals – but this was easily the best performance of his career. His best prior finish on tour was a runner-up showing at last season's October event in Waterloo. He took home the winner's share $750 scholarship, the championship plaque, and a permanent place on Champion's Row. Congratulations, Kyle!

FIELD OF 81 COMPETES AT MAPLE

This month's event drew 81 entrants (59 boys and 22 girls). The GISBT welcomed 8 players who made their tour debut this month.

SIDERS RALLIES FOR RUNNER-UP FINISH

Kendric Siders continued his fabulous start to the season at this month's event. The right-hander from Eagle River, Alaska captured our season-opening event last month in Davenport, and this month, he took home runner-up honors with a stout match-play rally that enabled him to reel in a $600 scholarship.

Siders used a final game 218 to squeeze into the match play finals by just 7 pins. Once there, he was the sharpest bowler, averaging 210.62 for his 8 matches, and posting a 6-2 record along the way. Siders won his position match with 215, and that was enough for him to slide into the runner-up spot by a single pin.

TACORDA TAKES 3rd

Andrei Tacorda finished 3rd this month. The Roseville, California native was on the cusp of his first tour title by posting 6 wins and 1 tie in his first 7 matches. That put him in prime position for victory, but his position round defeat ultimately knocked him into 3rd place – just 1 pin behind the runner-up spot.

This matched the highest finish of Tacorda's GISBT career. He previously finished 3rd at the January 2022 tour event. The 2-hander won a $500 scholarship for his performance. It was his 7th match play finals appearance.

VENEM FINISHES 4th

Ryan Venem returned to the finals, and his efforts netted him a $400 scholarship. One of 3 southpaws in this month's match play round, Venem was in solid form all day, resulting in his 2nd tour finals appearance. The 21 year-old tour veteran enjoyed his breakthrough victory at last season's Tournament of Champions.

BIERI BAGS 5th

Keaten Bieri finished 5th this time out. The Letts, Iowa resident was appearing in his 6th career match play finals. Bieri earned a $350 scholarship for his efforts.

YOUNG TAKES 6th

Will Young, a Summerville, South Carolina resident, was this month's 6th place finisher. The 20 year-old was one of five 2-handers in this month's boy's finals; he was rewarded with a $325 scholarship.

VANVEGHEL PLACES 7th

River Vanvegchel returned to the match play finals for the 4th time in his tour career, and the Waterloo, Illinois native eventually finished 7th, earning a $300 scholarship award for his efforts.

NAKAGAWA 8th IN FINALS DEBUT

Raiden Nakagawa completed this month's boys' finals field by finishing in 8th place. The right-hander from Kaneohe, Hawaii was appearing in his 2nd GISBT event, and was rewarded with a $275 scholarship for his day's work.

KOLBERG CLAIMS TITLE IN GISBT DEBUT

KOLBERG DOMINANT FROM START TO FINISH

Megan Kolberg put on a dominant display of shot making at this month's tour stop. The southpaw from Sycamore, Illinois averaged 215.87 for her 8-game qualifying round, giving her a 157-pin lead heading into the finals. While that lead shrunk considerably, she finished strong with games of 231, 205 and a big 257 in her final position round, and those numbers gave her a commanding 271-pin margin of victory.

Kolberg's win was one of the more dominant victories in recent memory. She dominated in qualifying, and then was the best during the finals by averaging 211.33 for her 6 games, and posting a 4-2 ledger along the way.

This was Kolberg's tour debut as well. Ironically, the last time a female competitor won in their tour debut also came at Maple Lanes. That happened 13 years ago - when Brandi Branki won in her GISBT debut back on September 12, 2010. The champion took home all the spoils of victory; those included the championship plaque, a $500 scholarship, and a permanent place on Champion's Row. Congratulations, Megan!

3-TIME CHAMP MADISON SECURES RUNNER-UP SHOWING

Brynna Madison turned in another successful showing. The slender stroker from Lincoln, qualified for her 16th match play finals, and her day resulted in a runner-up finish, and the accompanying $400 payday. Madison has logged a bevy of high finishes over the past 4 seasons, including 3 tour championships.

ABDUL JALIL 3rd IN TOUR DEBUT

Malaysia's Nada Abdul Jalil roared into her very first GISBT event, and when it was all said and done, she had recorded an impressive 3rd place finish. The right-hander took home a $300 scholarship for her performance.

DAY FINISHES 4th

Chloe Day was this month's 4th place finisher. The Galesburg, Illinois native earned a $250 payday for her efforts. This was the 4th match play finals of her tour career.

4-TIME TOUR CHAMP MOORE FINISHES 5th

Rachel Moore was this month's 5th place finisher. The right-hander from Keokuk, Iowa took home a $225 scholarship by virtue of her performance. This was her 20th match play finals.

ULLIAN PLACES 6th

Kenzie Ullian rounded out this month's match play finals field; she picked up a $200 scholarship for her performance. The right-handed stroker from New Lenox, Illinois was appearing in her 2nd consecutive match play finals.

THANKS TO OUR CLIPBOARD VOLUNTEERS

At most of our events, we ask volunteers to keep a running total of scores after each game, and those results are how we maintain track of the boy's and girl's standings after each game. Thanks so much for everyone for volunteering to keep a clipboard. It is genuinely appreciated!

THANKS TO MAPLE LANES & STAFF

Thank you to Maple Lanes, the Eighme family, Ryan Wilson and the entire staff for once again welcoming the Greater Iowa Scholarship Bowling Tour. Thanks so much Maple Lanes!

CELEBRATING MY 25th ANNIVERSARY SEASON

As 2023-2024 gets underway, many thoughts flood over me. I began attending GISBT events in 1997, and I began helping with the tournaments not long after that. In July 1999, I became an official tournament director, and this season marks my 25th anniversary season in that role.

Along the way, Rob & Linda Roseman, Sharon & Larry Weggen, Alex & Paula Papke, Gary Fillenworth, Dave Stansbury, Patty Hale and Brooke Flannagan, Brad Basart, Adam Morse and others have provided their support. They have volunteered their time and have served our tour members with passion and enthusiasm. Their service and loyalty are paramount to the continued success of this tour.

Our incredible bowling centers have continued to host our events, and without their support, our tour could not take place. The owners of these establishments have shared our beliefs, and our vision of continuing education for our tour members, and I personally thank each of them for their dedication to the GISBT. Sponsors such as STORM and TROPHY KING continue to share in these beliefs as well.

Over these 25 years, we have strived to provide a competitive atmosphere for the very best young bowlers in the Midwest, establish a great prize fund, offer a challenging lane pattern for our competitors, and we've tried to make each competitor and their family and friends feel welcome at all of our events. These guidelines have always been the backbone of the GISBT.

This tour has been one of the highlights of my life over the past quarter-century. The memories of watching some of the very best and brightest young bowlers achieve greatness is something I always cherish. It is truly an honor to be able to see so many talented young competitors get their start on our tour. Through the GISBT, competitors continue to develop their craft while becoming better bowlers and better people along the way. And through the GISBT, our competitors make friends which last a lifetime. And for me – that's the absolute top of the mountain – the friendships I've established with so many bowlers, family members, friends, proprietors and sponsors.

The thrills I've been privileged to witness will always remain with me. Many of the nation's top collegiate players have competed on our tour, and through this competition, they've accumulated scholarship dollars that have furthered their education. Their abilities have allowed them to add more athletic scholarship assistance while attending college.

A whopping 46 members of Junior Team USA have claimed membership in the GISBT as well, and this list includes some of our most decorated champions. Some of the nation's top professional bowlers, such as Erin McCarthy and A.J. Chapman, have gotten their start on the GISBT planks.

I remember my first day in July 1999 as an official tournament director as if it were yesterday. Today – 25 seasons later – I am honored to continue to be a part of the GISBT, which remains as one of the nation's finest scholarship bowling tours, with an incredible array of champions and match play finalists to its' credit. I thank each of you for your friendship, your loyalty and your continued quest for success.
