Healthy Snack Bags and Books For Kids

We began distributing snack bags and books for kids on the 17th. Thanks to our 4 wonderful volunteers and to the welcoming Food Pantry volunteers. We gave away 27 bags and 27 books, mostly to parents who took them home to the kids. However, a few kids and 2 teens were there to pick their own books. One little girl's eyes really lit up when she saw the fun cover of "Mama Harris' Fried Pie Army" and she proudly carried off the book. We will be distributing every Monday through August 19.

Next Food Packing day will be July 7 or July 14 after 11 Worship. We need a Life Group to volunteer to pack. It goes pretty fast and bags are counted into totes for transportation downstairs on Mondays, one tote each week. 200 items will be due on or around July 1st from participating Life Groups. Let me know if you have any problems bringing the items. Thanks so much to Life Groups.

We have a good supply of books but are lacking in some popular and inspiring categories, especially for older kids and teens. We are checking out some used book stores on line and in larger cities to find more of these types. This will take some funds and we do need some Financial Contributions. Checks made out to the church noting Books for Kids are very welcome!! Think of the books you read about kids like you who faced difficult odds, overcame obstacles, and became good and giving and sometimes even famous persons. Inspiring and life changing books for me and probably for you!! Most books are good and encourage reading. (We are still pre-reading some bargain books). And some books are special and can be life changing. Let's inspire some older kids and teens!

Thanks for all you are doing to help our Kids!! Mary Ellen Bender

Our next opportunity to serve will be in September.
