

Cathy A. Kurtz

"Powerful!!! When you think the human spirit cannot possibly endure anymore pain, tragedy, and loneliness ...Cathy will encourage both young girls and women alike, 'That with God's faithful strength and love, we can get through and survive anything while living though the pain.'" - Chris B

Healing
Hart
PUBLISHING

"Cathy's story is a beautiful testament to the strength of the human spirit...She takes you behind closed doors and gives a brutally honest account of abuse, abandonment and personal failures. Through it all, she grows in strength, love, forgiveness and her faith in God. She is riveting and inspirational." - Janie Smith, author "HOPE Beyond Trauma ...a mother's journey"

Follow Cathy`

/CathyAKurtz

Cathy was faced with harrowing grief after losing her mother, father, brother and sister-in-law in a private plane crash when she was only sixteen years old. Then thirteen years later she lost her remaining sibling to AIDS. In addition Cathy endured sexual and mental abuse from her boyfriend who ultimately became her first husband. She felt trapped and had nowhere to turn for help.

After suffering in silence for so many years, Cathy has now made the life-changing decision to share her story via a compelling and thought-provoking memoir as well as openly sharing with her audience. She tells her story in a brutal, honest-mode, revealing her bold tenacity and unshaken commitment to her faith. By sharing her raw and heartfelt story with the world, she inspires women to open up about their own pain and start their journey toward healing.

