

PREPARING STUDENTS
FOR LIFE

AlivenArts

CPS Fine Arts Gifted Assessment

2019 – 2020

FAQ

1. If I nominated someone in 2018-2019 and they didn't pass the GATES- can I nominate them again? Yes, in addition to your two new nominations.
- 1A. If I nominated someone in 2018-2019 and they passed GATES, but didn't pass the live audition - can I nominate them again? Yes
2. If I nominated someone in 2018-2019 and they were designated in music as gifted and now I want to nominate them in Visual Art - can I? Yes
3. For 2019-2020 - - Can a student be nominated in more than one arts area? Yes
4. If I had a student designated as gifted in 2018-2019 -will they receive programming/services this year as well? Yes
5. If I nominate a student for Gifted and they pass the Gates, but do not show up for their "live audition" can there be a make-up audition? No
6. What should they prepare for the live audition? See Gifted Arts Packet
7. What services/programs, etc. are provided to students designated as "gifted". See Gifted Arts Packet
8. If my student does the live audition – will there be written feedback given to the student and me? Teachers may request a copy of the live audition score sheet or art portfolio assessment score sheet.
9. Will be required to send home with students, all CPS Gifted Parent Information letters? Yes, as is the case of all CPS Gifted Programs in all areas.

10. How do I get extra copies of forms? Here is link to forms:

<https://www.alivenarts.org/cps-fine-arts-gifted-student-assessment.html>

11. Can I submit a student without the Parent Consent forms? Yes, but be sure to email Ms. Kramer that after multiple attempts you were not able to get the Parent Consent Forms returned.

12. Who and/or what is AlivenArts? AlivenArts mission is to engage the arts community and arts consumers in a manner that presents arts education, information, performance and other artistic experiences. Thus, increasing the public's access to the broad benefits of the arts. They are the contracted provider for Gifted Arts Assessments in CPS

13. Who should I contact for help? All questions on Gifted Assessments please direct to Rachel Kramer to rkramer@AlivenArts.org