Rev. Jessica Boyce, Elder in the Rocky Mountain Conference and Certified Coach, founded Whole Soul Consulting to provide candidates for ordination an additional resource for discernment coaching, support in completing ordination requirements, and helping them transition into their first church.

Supported by a Board of Directors comprised of clergy, candidates and laity, Whole Soul is committed to strengthening the United Methodist Church by strengthening our future leaders. Our clergy are the soul of our church, but many find themselves disillusioned by our ordination process and leave for another denomination or reach the end of the process too worn out to be excited about their next step on God's path. A strong church needs strong leaders, emerging from the process with their whole soul intact, ready to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Let us provide the spiritual support, coaching and guidance your candidates need to not just survive the ordination process, but thrive because of it.

WHOLE SOUL CONSULTING

Providing candidates for ordination and new pastors personalized support, coaching and spiritual care as they navigate God's calling in their life. Via Skype or phone, candidates from across the nation are finding support, empowerment and challenging conversations at Whole Soul Consulting.

DISCERNMENT COACHING

Often DCOM and BOM teams ask a candidate to clarify their calling or prayerfully consider their path towards Deacon or Elder, but candidates struggle with these and other questions relating to their journey. We provide the one-on-one conversations candidates need to discern their theology and understand their calling.

PAPERWORK SUPPORT

Do you know a highly gifted Candidate who is not communicating their gifts and graces in their paperwork, or is struggling with deadlines and requirements? We can help the candidate think through their theology as it pertains to the Historical Questions and other written requirements of the ordination process and prepare for interviews.

FIRST CHURCH & CHURCH TRANSITIONS

Many Conferences offer workshops for new pastors and transitioning pastors, but Whole Soul offers a unique program of one-on-one, ongoing coaching to journey with the new or transitioning pastor until they find themselves comfortable in their ministry setting.
