From the Editor

Hello everyone,

Well January has come and gone in a flash. Things seem to still be up in the air about Springfest. What can and not be done. There will be a meeting on the 20th with 2 members from each club to determine how things can go. Unless some restrictions are lifted, we will not be able to use the Festhalle. That said, I have been told we will have some type of Springfest regardless. I sure plan on being there for whatever it is! An email will be sent after this meeting to let everyone know. Not sure what weekend in March yet, but I plan on having a club meeting at my place. Until then, stay safe and drive you Corvair.

Clay

From the Prez- Chuck Smith

Hello everyone. As is the norm lately, Clay has had to remind me that it is time for an article for the newsletter! I have to wonder... is losing track of time a sure sign of aging?

Don't know about you, but I sure am glad the elections are over for a while. I dreaded going to the mailbox, because it was sure to be stuffed with political literature, and the TV had nothing but political ads, one after another. I realize its the nature of the beast, but why can't they tell me what they are going to do for me, instead of dragging their opponent through the mud?

OK. Enough ranting. Have you been on the internet recently, and checked out what sellers are trying to get for their Corvairs? If you happen to have a parts car, just barely recognizable as a Corvair, you are sitting on a gold mine! People are asking 2500-3000 dollars for what appears to be a Corvair, sitting in weeds taller than the car, with small trees growing up between the bumpers and the body of the car! If it is a convertible, the top is in shreds, or completely gone, which usually means the floorboards are gone, not to mention the upholstery. Oh, and lets not forget, it has the "rare" two carburetor engine, which ran when parked, 15 years ago.

Now, on the other end of the scale, we have the restored Corvairs. Some of these cars are trying to be sold for more that a nice house cost when the cars were new. For example, on E-Bay, '64 Monza, 32,500 dollars. '63 Rampside, 49,900 dollars. '62 700 station wagon, 24,900 dollars. I hope you are sitting down for this one, at a Mecum auction earlier this year, a '65 Greenbrier 8-door, 103,400 dollars! I am afraid the days of somebody calling, and telling you that they have a Corvair in their yard, and you can have it if you come get it, are over.

I guess when someone asks you what a Corvair is worth, the correct answer is, " whatever somebody is willing to pay"!

Sorry, I guess I ranted again. Hope everybody is healthy and well, maybe we can all get together soon.

Take care,
drive them Corvairs,
and do something nice foe someone!
