A Note from Rick: Stronger markets across the board at TLA this week. The Slaughter Cow Market showed the biggest gains, but other markets showed improvements as well. Slaughter Cattle, calves and the Dairy Sale were more active this week. Slaughter Cows, both conventional and organic, sold very, very well. Probably as strong as they've been in quite some time. The calf sale, both heifers and bulls, showed definite strength compared to the last 6 weeks or so. Calf prices are still not anything to get real excited or brag about but at least there is some more interest. The cooler weather and some very welcomed rain in most areas has been a major blessing. The rain was needed for crops and the cooler temperatures a much needed relief for the livestock and everybody that had to work out in the heat. Hope you are all having a fun and safe summer. Look forward to seeing you at TLA!
