WALL OF FAME APPLICATION

Deadline for Nominations:

January 18, 2019

About the Wall of Fame

The concept of a Wall of Fame began in 1988 under former Executive Director, Mr. Bill Ballou of the Columbia Housing Authority. Always concerned for the well being of the youth in his communities and wanting a way to present positive, encouraging images and role models, Mr. Ballou commissioned a local artist to paint the first portraits. He believed youth would be influenced by former residents of public housing who became successful leaders and pillars of the community. Thus, the Wall of Fame began.

Eligibility

The Wall of Fame honors past residents who have made successful achievements in their lives. Awards will be made at the discretion of the Authority. All nominations should meet the following criteria:

- Nominations must have been a Columbia Housing Authority resident.
- Nominations must provide written documentation of outstanding community or civic leadership, which may include but is not limited to examples of serving as a role model for families and/or community service.
- Nominees must demonstrate that their motivations, determination and desire to achieve have resulted in outstanding contributions to present and past community members.
- Nominees must consent to be interviewed by the selection committee.
- Nominees must consent to attend the induction ceremony.
- Nominees must agree to periodically dedicate time and effort to the community by serving as role models to present and future residents.
