

Aurora preps open athletic conditioning

Aurora Central Catholic football players were among area athletes that began conditioning drills this week. A half dozen ACC players gathered at seven in the morning for the first time in months after the COVID-19 pandemic shut down sports in March. West Aurora plans to open conditioning next week. East Aurora hasn't set a date to open conditioning. (Al Benson photo)