A Special Thank You

I don't believe I have ever used this space for a mash note. But there are times that propriety must be set aside. This month marks a changing of the guard. At the congregational meeting we will be electing new officers and board members. Every person who has served deserves our sincere thanks. And everyone who is picking up the reins deserves to be celebrated. But one person's service demands special recognition.

Victor Feit has served as president of the congregation longer than any of his predecessors. Four years is a substantial period of time. It has required tremendous sacrifice. But it is not the longevity that demands special commendation. Victor has shown remarkable devotion to the congregation. He has given 100% of his effort to everything that the congregation has needed from large, complex tasks to the smallest. I am sure he has called every member of the congregation often during his four years of service. He has cajoled you and thanked you. He has invited you and implored you. He has pursued large plans for the congregation, navigated it through rough waters, and brought it to serene shores. And he has run out during services to buy Oneg food for unexpectedly large crowds, hand-delivered important documents, and moved tables and chairs. He invented an annual auction, solicited all the items auctioned off, personally recruited attendees, and served as auctioneer. He has poured his energies into every facet of the annual concert: selling ads, devising ingenious plans for marketing tickets, and personally selling large blocks of them, arranging a silent auction, arranging intermission receptions. Frankly the list could go on much longer and fill up this entire newsletter. Victor has been a remarkable cheerleader for everything the congregation has undertaken. Indeed, there is no part of the congregation's life he has not been involved in. The congregation is much stronger and enriched for all of Victor's efforts.

Victor will be a hard act to follow. In fact it is hard to imagine the congregation without Victor at the helm. Not that we bid him adieu. L'hitra'ot is more appropriate. Victor has already charted out the roles he will play in his post-presidential time. We know for sure the congregation will never be far from Victor's thoughts or his heart. We look forward to sharing the next chapter with him.

And while we are expressing thanks, let us not neglect Sue Feit. She has been an exemplary first lady of the congregation. Not only has she unselfishly shared Victor with us, she has pitched in in so many ways. Her efforts, too, have been a gift to the congregation. We owe her, too, a heartfelt vote of thanks. How lucky we are to have such devoted members of the Shir Chadash family. Words cannot begin to express the thanks we owe you. We are very much in your debt. And we intend to express those thanks in many settings during the coming month

I hope every member of the congregation takes the opportunity to express their thanks to Victor and Sue personally.

B' Shalom
Rabbi Daniel Polish

A Message from President Victor Feit

Four Years Later...

Sitting here thinking about my newsletter article, I realized that I have served four years as President of Shir Chadash. This means that I have written over forty monthly newsletter articles, presided over forty board meetings, wrote and given eight High Holiday messages, ran four auctions, made over a thousand phone calls, have been to over 150 Friday Shabbat services (and have prepared and presented temple updates each time), and have been to over 150 Oneg Shabbats which, unfortunately, due to the fine culinary skills of Robbie, Andrea, Sandy and all the Shir Chadash bakers, added to my growing girth.

The only regret I have as President, was to not be able to lead Shir Chadash to a new home. A new home is becoming increasingly important—in fact, I believe it is a necessity! Freedom Plains United Presbyterian Church is moving along with its building plans and construction, which may mean some inconvenience to our congregation. At our annual meeting on May 22—being held at 11 AM at Bowdoin Park Chapel—we will be discussing this problem and possible solutions. We will also be presenting our new board of trustees and executive officers for the congregation's approval. I sincerely hope that all members will be there.

Please, also, clear your calendars for Sunday, May 15. The day will begin with Mitzvah Day projects. Please contact Steve Herschbein for all information regarding Mitzvah Day. At the end of the day, we will be celebrating with our annual concert featuring the internationally renowned, Grammy award winning Klezmatics. The concert will be held at 5:00PM at the Poughkeepsie Day School's James Earl Jones Theater. This will be my last event as your President. Please help me to make it a major success. There will be scrumptious delicacies provided by our members and door prizes, as well. It will be a joyous evening of fun, food and great music, bring your friends and families and share in making my last event as your President a rip-roaring success.

It's been a pleasure serving as your President for the past four years and I look forward to passing the torch to the next President.

Shalom,
Vic Feit

A Message from Sue Marcoe, Education Enrichment Coordinator

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL APRIL NOTES & MAY REMINDERS

Thank you to all who made our special Pathways to Passover Program a success. Once again it was a team effort, which demonstrates the spirit of Shir Chadash. Our Aleph and Bet classes baked matzah outside on a heated stone, much like our ancestors did in the desert. They also painted and/or designed seder plates and matzah covers. Meanwhile our Gimmel class came up with an interesting presentation of the Four Children and continued working on their year-long project which will be completed the last day of class. Thank you to our teachers: Rochelle Bellach, Steve Moskowitz, Ed Ginsberg, and our assistant teacher, Andrew Scheck.

Thank you also to: Wendy Freedman, Tami Malley, and Ellen Rand who supplied the food and prepared the plates for our mini-Seder; Jane Freeman Moore, Wendy Bill, Jerry and Andrew Scheck, and Sara Rothman for their delicious matzah-brie, and to all those who stepped up to help pour juice, hand out napkins, serve the matzah-brie or just do whatever was needed. Finally thank you to Rabbi Polish for working the Haggadah Jeff Lash for his great impersonation of Moses, Cantor Hirschenfang for leading our Mini-Seder, and our students for their lovely singing of the Four Questions in Hebrew, reading of the questions in English, and providing a thoughtful interpretation of the Four Children. For all those working behind the scenes whom I didn't mention, and those participating in our Mini Seder, thank you for helping to make that day special.

REMINDER: May 6th - Joint service with Temple Beth-El at Shir Chadash at 7:30pm. 3rd & 4th Grade Hebrew school students will lead the service.

May 18th - All 7-12th graders and their parents are invited to Gesher at Temple Beth-El. Dinner will be served; 7th graders will join the different classes; and the parents will meet with the Rabbis. Please put this on your calendar.

“The Spinoza Problem: A Novel” by Irvin D. Yalom

In The Spinoza Problem, Irvin Yalom spins fact and fiction into an unforgettable psycho-philosophical novel. A psychiatrist with a deep interest in philosophical issues, Yalom jointly tells the story of the seventeenth-century thinker Baruch Spinoza, his philosophy and subsequent excommunication from the Jewish community, and his apparent influence on the Nazi ideologue Alfred Rosenberg, whose einsatzgruppe was dispatched during the Second World War to investigate a mysterious “Spinoza Problem.” Seamlessly alternating between Golden Age Amsterdam and Nazi Germany, Yalom investigates the inner lives of these two enigmatic men in a tale of influence and anxiety, the origins of good and evil, and the philosophy of freedom and the tyranny of terror. Amazon

Jay Parini, author of The Last Station and The Passages of H.M.

“Spinoza had no ‘real life’ outside his reading and writing: he lived in his brilliant mind. So how do you write about a philosopher—a writer beloved of Goethe, Schopenhauer, and so many other thinkers—who spent most of his time in thought? And how do you regard Spinoza—a Jew whose work helped to usher in the Enlightenment—if, indeed, you’re a Nazi? Irvin Yalom is just the writer to take on such a problem, and he solves it, with his own novelistic brilliance, in this vibrant book. In my view, Yalom is one of the most eclectic, wide-ranging, and dazzling writers of our time.”

★★AND/OR★★

“The First Modern Jew: Spinoza and the History of an Image” by Daniel B. Schwartz

“Pioneering biblical critic, theorist of democracy, and legendary conflator of God and nature, Jewish philosopher Baruch Spinoza (1632-1677) was excommunicated by the Sephardic Jews of Amsterdam in 1656 for his “horrible heresies” and “monstrous deeds.” Yet, over the past three centuries, Spinoza’s rupture with traditional Jewish beliefs and practices has elevated him to a prominent place in genealogies of Jewish modernity. The First Modern Jew provides a riveting look at how Spinoza went from being one of Judaism’s most notorious outcasts to one of its most celebrated, if still highly controversial, cultural icons, and a powerful and protean symbol of the first modern secular Jew.

Ranging from Amsterdam to Palestine and back again to Europe, the book chronicles Spinoza’s posthumous odyssey from marginalized heretic to hero, the exemplar of a whole host of Jewish identities, including cosmopolitan, nationalist, reformist, and rejectionist. Daniel Schwartz shows that in fashioning Spinoza into “the first modern Jew,” generations of Jewish intellectuals—German liberals, East European maskilim, secular Zionists, and Yiddishists—have projected their own dilemmas of identity onto him, reshaping the Amsterdam thinker in their own image. The many afterlives of Spinoza are a kind of looking glass into the struggles of Jewish writers over where to draw the boundaries of Jewishness and whether a secular Jewish identity is indeed possible. Cumulatively, these afterlives offer a kaleidoscopic view of modern Jewish culture and a vivid history of an obsession with Spinoza that continues to this day.” Amazon

Congregation Shir Chadash and Freedom Plains United Presbyterian Church are considering a second interfaith journey to Israel in 2016.

Two years ago a group from both congregations experienced a moving and exciting trip together. Many people have asked that we do it again. It was a deeply moving experience, showing Jews parts of Israel that they never would have seen; and showing our Christian friends the Israel that is so dear to us. It was a deeply moving experience. Many of the travelers called it life changing.

Now some of the "pilgrims" who traveled two years ago want to travel to Israel a second time. And some members of both congregations who did not come with us wish they had come the first time. In response to these requests we are exploring a second joint trip. Non-members who are interested in the trip are welcome too. The itinerary will be tailored to the needs of the group that is traveling.

CEREAL COUNTS!!! 2016 Shir Chadash Joins the Annual Dutchess County-Wide Boxed Cereal Drive

Every summer, children lack access to school-based free breakfast programs. Families really need breakfast food. Daily breakfast has potential physical and mental health benefits for everyone!!!

CEREAL COUNTS!!! is a boxed cereal drive that now occurs each spring. The goal: To work together and reduce breakfast hunger. We are running a drive to support CEREAL COUNTS!!!! Please bring new boxes of cereal to A Shir Chadash Shabbat Service May 13 or May 14 Or to Mitzvah Day on May 15.

Once the boxes are collected, they will be brought over to Mitzvah Day on Sunday, May 15th, Mitzvah Day, and added to the community collection for CEREAL COUNTS!!! 2016. The boxes will then be delivered to pantries and area food distribution sites in Dutchess County. This includes: Dutchess Outreach; Zion Baptist Church pantry; the Reach Out Pantry; St. Paul's; Beulah Baptist Church Pantry; Community Action Partnership pantries in Poughkeepsie, Dover, Beacon and Red Hook; Hudson River Housing/Hillcrest Shelter; the Dept of Social Services; and the Interfaith Senior Housing Site. The project is a wonderful way to reduce breakfast hunger in our community.

Hungry summers are coming...
