

Proudfoot, Harold

Harold Proudfoot, 77, died Monday, March 5, 2001, at Tendercare of Cass City following a lengthy illness. He was born on Dec. 12, 1923, in Owendale to the late William and Elminda (Shantz) Proudfoot. Harold was employed at the former Sebewaing Lumber Co. for several years. Later he was employed by the Village of Sebewaing, Department of Public Works, for years before retiring in 1984. He was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church, served on the parsonage building committee, was a trustee and served on several other church offices. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. Surviving besides his loving wife of 55 years, Evelyn, are one daughter and son-in-law, Diane Ewald and her husband, Larry, of Pigeon; two grandchildren and their spouses, Robin Oosterveen and her husband, the Rev. Craig, of Roseville, and Gregg Ewald and his wife, Laura, of Jupiter, Fla.; two great-grandsons, Thomas and Tyler Ewald; one brother, Randolph Proudfoot and his wife, Sophie, of Tawas City; one sister, Coralee Nelson and her husband, Richard, of Marine City; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by one sister, Ruth Chappel. The funeral service will take place at 11 a.m. on Saturday, March 10, 2001, at Trinity United Methodist Church in Sebewaing with the Rev. Ray McGee officiating. Burial will be in Memorial Park Cemetery. Military grave side committal service will be held under the auspices of the Sebewaing V.F.W. Post No. 4115. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Friday at the Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebewaing and from 10 a.m. until the time of services on Saturday at the church. Memorials may be made to Trinity United Methodist Church, Bay Shore Camp, or the family's discretionary fund. The family would like to thank the staff of Brian's House, Heartland Hospice, and Tendercare of Cass City for the loving care they gave to Harold.
