FOURTH OF JULY BBQ—1 TO 4PM

Stop by to watch the fleets racing on the morning of July 4th or sleep in and come enjoy yard games during the BBQ from 1 to 4pm at the KYC.

The Cross Eyed Cats Blues Band will be live at the KYC also from 1 to 4pm.

Kim will be serving cold beverages from the bar starting at NOON. Check out our local craft beers and local wines!

HAPPY 4TH OF JULY!

Wishing everyone a safe and happy 4th of July! Enjoy the long weekend and many activities going on as you also take time to remember the reason why we celebrate. Please be extra careful on both the roads and the water this weekend. Also, and as a reminder, fireworks are prohibited at the Keuka Yacht Club.

Hope to see you on the 4th,

Steve Bender
Commodore

MC MASTERS MEA CULPA!

A big thank you also to Mike Doyle and the Pleasant Valley Wine Company for donating splits of Rose Champagne for each MC registrant along with Rose Champagne for the wine tasting on Saturday evening. The registrants loved the splits as was evident at the tasting!

E-SCOW NYS CHAMPIONSHIP LEG 2

Six E-scows raced on Chautauqua Lake last weekend in the second leg of the Home & Home regatta. Cloudy skies brought thunderstorms and a postponement Saturday morning. After lunch, the wind filled in and there were three races in a steady building breeze reported to be in the low 20s by the finish of the third race. Sunday morning there was a strong breeze leading to another postponement while conditions were surveyed. The fleet went out in a 13-15mph breeze that quickly built again into the low 20s for one race.

Rick Turner (CH6) won, followed by William Hudson (KU12) in 2nd place and Joe Meade (KU25) in 3rd. Ricky Turner (CH7) was 4th, Bob Cole (KU9) 5th and Steve Bender (KU10) 6th. The Keuka Fleet won the Club Challenge trophy.
