Hannah Bailey has been studying the flute for seventeen years, earning her Bachelor of Music in Performance from Azusa Pacific University in 2016 and Artist Certificate in 2018, studying with Gary Woodward.

Hannah discovered her passion for performing and teaching at Northern California Flute Camp where she attended first as a student then worked for six years. This gave her the opportunity to learn from renowned performers, including Keith Underwood, Amy Porter, Paula Robison, and several others. She has performed in both solo and excerpt masterclasses with Bonita Boyd, as well as Jill Felber and Dr. Angeleita Floyd. During the 2016/17 season, Hannah performed as the principal flute with the Orange County Symphony, which included a featured performance as a soloist in the Brandenburg Concerti. In the summer of 2017, she traveled to Zhengzhou, China and performed as principal with the Yellow River Symphony.

Hannah continued her graduate studies with Dr. Nicole Molunby at Boise State University where she graduated with her Master of Music in 2020. She is using her education to pursue her love of teaching both in the Boise area and virtually throughout California.
