- Sweater, rain coat or warm jacket (as needed)
- Water bottle
- First aid supplies
- Notebook/journal and/or sketchbook, pens, pencils
- Sunglasses & sunscreen
- Hat or cap
- Travel packs of tissues
- Pocket knife
- Camera
- Walking stick
- Enough room for a picnic lunch and a few snacks

Reminders

- Securely attach nametags to each bag, even your purse or carry-on. Print clearly. In addition, it is a good idea to put your name, flight information and contact numbers inside each of your bags in case luggage tags are lost in transit.
- Airline luggage and security restrictions change frequently. Be sure to check with your carrier before your departure to avoid surprises at the airport.
- Before you pack, carefully check every nook and cranny in your luggage for restricted items that may delay you at airport security checkpoints.
- Be sure to you can move of your luggage at least 50 yards in one trip without any assistance.
- Be prepared: only one carry-on item is allowed on board flights between Athens and Crete. A purse counts as one item; you will need to check all other bags.
- We have never been able to find a reliable way to ship packages back from Greece. If you end up at the end of the tour with more things than will fit in your suitcase (a common problem) consider packing an extra duffel bag (or purchase one a tourist shop on Crete) to check as additional luggage on your flight home. This is the cheapest, most reliable way to transport things back to the USA.
