WHAT IS ACCREDITATION?

Accreditation is a process whereby an agency is evaluated on the existence of and its compliance with prescribed standards. Colleges, nursing homes and hospitals have all had accreditation programs for years.

WHAT IS THE WISCONSIN LAW ENFORCEMENT ACCREDITATION PROGRAM?

It is an agency accreditation program administered by the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Accreditation Group (WILEAG) specifically tailored to the needs and capacities of Wisconsin agencies since 1996 and has shown continuous growth in membership to the present time.

HISTORY OF WILEAG PROGRAM

The WILEAG program has evolved as a result of an initiative by the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association. The intent is to offer a high quality and affordable alternative to the national law enforcement accreditation program (CALEA) that was established in 1979.

WILEAG OPERATIONS & ADMINISTRATION

The WILEAG program standards are set by the WILEAG Governing Board. Standards cover virtually all key areas of agency operations and administration. The 4th Edition of Standards was adopted on December 10th, 2012.

THE GOVERNING BOARD

The Board is comprised of 15 members who come from leadership roles in Wisconsin law enforcement agencies as well as professionals from related disciplines. The WILEAG Governing Board confers accredited status after a review of the findings and upon the positive recommendations of the on-site assessment team. Assessors are respected, experienced law enforcement professionals (or recent retirees). They volunteer and are trained for the assessor role.

BENEFITS OF AGENCY ACCREDITATION

The findings of the independent review and achievement of accredited status provide:

- a well-deserved sense of professionalism and pride by the agency, the agency's personnel and the community that the agency serves.
- communities gain security in the knowledge that their agencies are well managed and utilizing the best police practices in the State of Wisconsin.
- prosecutors have the assurance that enforcement operations and personnel are consistently well directed.
- local officials know that there is an independent review and evaluation of agency operations.

PROCESS OVERVIEW

Achieving accredited status is a multi-phase, self-paced process:

- each agency adopts and implements the standards.
- each agency does an in-depth self-assessment to determine readiness for the on-site assessment.
- the WILEAG assessment team conducts an on-site review and presents findings, as well as recommendations, to the WILEAG Governing Board.
- the WILEAG Governing Board grants accreditation to the agency or counsels the agency on the steps necessary to achieve accreditation.

As of August 1st, 2015 there are 37 WILEAG law enforcement agencies that are accredited or actively involved in achieving accredited status. The cost is just $600 per year, the gains are immeasurable. You and your agency deserve to be recognized for achieving law enforcement excellence! Join us.
