

CLARA ADA YODER

1922-1980

Clara Ada Yoder, age 58, of Bay Port passed away Wednesday, June 18, at Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon.

She was born February 4, 1922 in Bay Port, daughter of the late Elias and Amanda Gnagey. On June 24, 1945 she was united in marriage to Jesse L. Yoder at the Pigeon River Mennonite Church. She was a member of the Pigeon River Mennonite Church; the Enriched Living Seminar held in Pigeon recently was one of her many endeavors.

Mrs. Yoder is survived by her husband, Jesse L. Yoder; one daughter, Mary Kathryn Tschirhart, Lansing; two sons, David D. Yoder, Monroe, La; John D. Yoder, Bay Port; three grandchildren; one sister, Miss Delores Ann Gnagey of Saginaw; three brothers, Ray D. Gnagey, Leroy A. Gnagey, both of Bay Port and Omar J. Gnagey from Archbold, Ohio; and several nieces and nephews.

Twin sisters preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Saturday, June 21 at 10:30 a.m. from the Pigeon River Mennonite Church. The Rev. Luke Yoder officiated with burial in the church cemetery.

Arrangements were handled by Shetler-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon.
