

SCARBOROUGH : The cliffs of the castle headland (seen in the distance) between the north and south bays is protected with a concrete sea wall with curved wave wall at the top. Access is by a series of steps that retain the integrity of the sea wall defence.

