

Grand Marais Summer Reading Program June 11-August 11, 2022

The Grand Marais Public Library launches its Read Off the Beaten Path summer reading program on Saturday, June 11, 2022. Kids ages zero to 18 can choose between several ways of tracking their reading and learning activities and earning free books and other prizes. All the materials and instructions will be available at the library throughout the summer, so kids can start their chosen program any time. Families can also register online to have a reading log mailed to them at www.grandmaraislibrary.org/kids.php. In addition to reading logs, the library will have theme-related activities and special events all summer long, including:

- The Wondrous Readers Society: The Wondrous Readers Society meets on the lawn for lemonade, doodling, and reading aloud every Wednesday from 4-5pm. We're finishing the third book in Jessica Townsend's Nevermoor series, Hollowpox: The Hunt for Morrigan Crow. Missed the first two books? Don't worry!

We'll catch you up as we go, or you can check out the audio or print books from the library. The series is aimed at ages 9-12, but all ages are welcome.

- Family Fun Outdoor Scavenger Hunt: Going on a hike or out to the lake with toddlers or preschoolers? Grab a scavenger hunt checklist from the library and build literacy skills while you play!

- Summer Outdoor Activity Booklet: Thanks to our friends at the Cloquet Public Library and Jay Cooke State Park, we have booklets chock full of nature facts, writing prompts, puzzles and coloring pages to enrich your summer adventures!

More activities, including take-and-make kits, story times, and visiting performers, are in the works, so keep an eye on the library website (www.grandmaraislibrary.org) and youth services Instagram page (@gmlibraryyouth) for announcements, or call the library at (218) 387-1140 to learn more about our summer reading adventures.

Two Harbors Public Library Hosts Annual Summer Reading Program

The Two Harbors Public Library 2022 Summer Reading Program, "Read Beyond the Beaten Path" kicked off June 4th and the program will run until July 30th. Participants can read or listen to books and other materials to earn virtual raffle tickets. "We invite community members of all ages to participate," says Madeline Jarvis, Library Director. "We have a lot of exciting grand prizes, thanks to the generosity of our sponsors." Grand prizes include local passes and gift cards, stuffed animals, Legos, outdoor toys, board games, a chocolate gift basket, cooler backpack, art kits, outdoor gear, and more. Children and teens can also earn incentives along the way.

The library encourages people to read during the summer for fun, as well as gaining valuable literary skills and learning new things. The program will coincide with in-person programming for all ages.
