

Sunday Meditation

Are you tempted to doubt your standing with God because of your imperfections? Others may get their prayers answered, but not you. You don't read the Bible enough. Your thoughts aren't pure enough. You've failed too often to keep your good resolutions.

Don't worry. In your dealings with God these failings and shortcomings count for absolutely nothing. In Christ you not only have perfect righteousness credited to you. You're not only wholly righteous. You are God's righteousness. "For he made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." (2 Corinthians 5:21). Still distressed by what you see in yourself? Look away from yourself. Look to your perfect Lord, and remember, in Him you're complete (Col. 2:10); In God's sight you are as perfect as if you had never sinned. This is the good news, the almost-too-good-to-be-true news. All for Jesus, Richard

Quarterly stats from WBS!

We have enrolled 299 new students, 238 of whom are incarcerated. 12 have expressed the desire to be baptized when they are released. 61 bibles have been sent & 13 have graduated the program. I want to thank Danny & Gayle Swafford, Pet Bogs & Cleo Young for their continuous help & support. They are the lynch pins underneath the program. I want to thank our Elders for their continual support. So much couldn't get done without it! Thank all of you for your support & prayers for this program & our students. So many of them are in very difficult places & they are so grateful for this congregation's caring attitude. Please continue to pray for this program & the students. God's word is changing lives.
