A Note from Rick: Markets went both ways at TLA this week. Dairy cattle prices were a little softer at the Special Springer Auction on Thursday. The slaughter market was stronger again on Tuesday. Calf prices bounced back also after a weaker market last week. Things are sure changing fast around here. There are multiple crews working on the new building and it is amazing to me how much has gotten done in one week. It was very hot and humid last week, but that didn't seem to slow anyone down. A big portion of the old barn is completely gone and the new building is being constructed. I want to thank everyone that worked here last week. It is truly amazing to me how much work can be accomplished with effort and organization. It is a fascinating thing to watch! Unfortunately at the other end of the building, the restaurant is in need of a new heating and cooling system. We have decided to close the restaurant for the next few months and work on some remodeling. Thanks for your patience! See you at TLA!
