

Staff and volunteers hold up stockings donated by United Methodist Women of Mountain View Methodist Church.

December 10, 2014- Verde Valley Caregivers Ready to Deliver Gifts to Seniors

By Katie Layne

Verde Valley Caregivers is making the holiday season bright for neighbors who are often alone this time of year. VVCC Holiday Giving Trees are located at: Sedona, Cottonwood, Camp Verde Public Libraries, Oakcreek Country Club, and Wal-mart. Visitors are invited to select a gift tag, purchase the needed items, and return them to a box located near each tree. Neighbors typically ask for warm socks, slippers, or a blanket. Some neighbors report this is the only present they receive at Christmas time. The trees will be up through Dec. 12. For more information please call (928) 204-1238.

Stockings are from the United Methodist Women and the Mountain View Methodist Church. Packages will be distributed by VVCC volunteers and by students from the Mingus High School National Honor Society.